Background

On October 21, 1995, the President, invoking the authority, inter alia, of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701–1706) (IEEPA), issued Executive Order 12978 (60 FR 54579, October 24, 1995) (the Order). In the Order, the President declared a national emergency to deal with the threat posed by significant foreign narcotics traffickers centered in Colombia and the harm that they cause in the United States and abroad.

Section 1 of the Order blocks, with certain exceptions, all property and interests in property that are in the United States or that hereafter come within the United States and abroad. Such persons include, but are not limited to, (a) any person that is determined by the President to own or control, or have interests in, property or interests in property of a blocked person; (b) any person that has knowledge of the nature and extent of the property or interests in property of a blocked person; and (c) any person that is owned or controlled by, or under common control with, a blocked person.
