STORAGE:

Information in this system is stored electronically on digital storage devices or as hard copy files. All record storage procedures are in accordance with current applicable regulations.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Records are retrievable by database management systems software designed to retrieve data elements based upon role-based user access privileges. Records may also be retrieved by non-personal information such as file number, entity/institution name, subject matter, agency involved, or other information.

The entire complex is patrolled by security during non-business hours. The computer system offers a high degree of resistance to tampering and circumvention and limits data access to Board and contract staff on a need-to-know basis. Individuals' ability to access and alter records within the system is controlled. All users of the system of records are provided a unique user identification (ID) with personal identifiers. User IDs are consistent with the above referenced role-based access privileges to maintain proper security of law enforcement and any other sensitive information. In concert with access controls, audit trails are used to record user and system activity within the system and its associated applications.

Paper records are maintained in file cabinets which may be locked or in specified areas to which only authorized personnel have access.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Board personnel will review records on a periodic basis to determine whether they should be retained or modified. Further, the Board will retain and dispose of these records in accordance with Board Records Control Schedules approved by the National Archives and Records Administration.

Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request

Upon Written Request, Copies Available From: Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of FOIA

Services, 100 F Street NE., Washington, DC 20549-2736.

Extension:

Form N-Q; OMB Control No. 3235-0578, SEC File No. 270-519.

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) ("Paperwork Reduction Act"), the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") is soliciting comments on the collection of information summarized below. The Commission plans to submit this existing collection of information to the Office of Management and Budget for extension and approval.

Form N-Q (17 CFR 249.332 and 274.130) is a reporting form used by registered management investment companies, other than small business investment companies registered on Form N-5 ("funds"), under Section 30(b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. 80a-1 et seq.) ("Investment Company Act") and Sections 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.). Pursuant to Rule 30b1-5 under the Investment Company Act, funds are required to file quarterly reports with the Commission on Form N-Q not more than 60 days after the close of the first and third quarters of each fiscal year containing their complete portfolio holdings. Additionally, fund management is required to evaluate the effectiveness of the fund's disclosure controls and procedures within the 90-day period prior to the filing of a report on Form N-Q, and such report must also be signed and certified by the fund's principal executive and financial officers.

We estimate that there are 11,348 funds required to file reports on Form N-Q. Based on staff experience and conversations with industry representatives, we estimate that it takes approximately 26 hours per fund to prepare reports on Form N-Q annually. Accordingly, we estimate that the total annual burden associated with Form N-Q is 295,048 hours (26 hours per fund × 11,348 funds) per year.

The estimates of average burden hours are made solely for the purposes of the Paperwork Reduction Act and are not derived from a comprehensive or even representative survey or study of the cost of Commission rules and forms. The collection of information under Form N-Q is mandatory. The information provided by the form is not kept confidential. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of
