BILLING CODE 6730-01-P

FEDERAL RETIREMENT THRIFT INVESTMENT BOARD

Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records

AGENCY: Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board.

ACTION: Notice of retirement of systems of records, revision of routine uses, revision of purpose and routine uses, technical revisions to systems of records, and establishment of new systems of records.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board (FRTIB) is proposing to: (1) Retire five systems of records; (2) create new general routine uses; (3) revise the purpose and routine uses of four existing systems of records; and (4) establish two new systems of records. The revisions implemented under this republication are corrective and administrative changes that refine and streamline previously published system of records notices.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before August 21, 2015 unless comments received on or before that date result in a contrary determination.

ADDRESSES: You may submit written comments to FRTIB by any one of the following methods:

- Federal eRulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov>. Follow the Web site instructions for submitting comments.

- Fax: 202-942-1676.

- Mail or Hand Delivery: Office of General Counsel, Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board, 77 K Street NE., Suite 1000, Washington, DC 20002.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Marla Greenberg, Chief Privacy Officer, Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board, Office of General Counsel, 77 K Street NE., Suite 1000, Washington, DC 20002, 202-864-8612. For access to any of the FRTIB's systems of records, contact Amanda Haas, FOIA Officer, Office of General Counsel, at the above address or by calling (202) 637-1250.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:(1) FRTIB Is Proposing To Retire Five Systems of Records

Pursuant the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, and as part of its ongoing integration efforts, the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board is retiring the following five systems of records notices: FRTIB-3, Equal Employment Opportunities Records (last published at 77 FR 11534 (February 27, 2012)); FRTIB-4, Adverse Information and Action Records: Disciplinary Records (last published 77 FR 11534 (February 27, 2012)); FRTIB-6, Leave Records (last published at FR (DATE)); FRTIB-10, Identity Management System (IDMS) (last published 77 FR 11534 (February 27, 2012)); and FRTIB-11, Financial Disclosure Reports and Outside Business Interest Records (last published at 77 FR 11534 (February 27, 2012)).

With regard to FRTIB-3, FRTIB will continue to collect and maintain records compiled during the pre-complaint counseling and the investigation of complaints under the Equal Employment Opportunity Act and will rely upon the existing Federal Government-wide system of records titled EEOC/GOVT-1 (Equal Employment Opportunity in the Federal Government Complaint and Appeal Records (67 FR 49338, July 30, 2002), which is written to cover all federal government EEO complaint and appeals records.

With regard to FRTIB-4, FRTIB will continue to collect and maintain personnel records and will rely upon the existing federal government-wide systems of records titled OPM/GOVT-1, General Personnel Records (71 FR 35342 June 19, 2006); OPM/GOVT-2, Employee Performance File System of Records (71 FR 35347 June 19, 2006); and OPM/GOVT-3, Records of Adverse Actions, Performance Based Reduction in Grade and Removal Actions and Termination of Probationers (71 FR 35350 June 19, 2006) which are written to cover all general federal government personnel records.

With regard to FRTIB-6, FRTIB will continue to collect and maintain employee leave records and will rely on FRTIB-5, Employee Payroll, Leave, and Attendance Records, as revised herein.

With regard to FRTIB-10, FRTIB will continue to collect and maintain records pertaining to the Personal Identity Verification (PIV) and Identity Management System (IDMS) and will rely upon the existing government-wide system of records titled GSA/GOVT-7 Personal Identity Verification Identity

Management System (73 FR 22377 April 25, 2008) which is written to cover all PIV/IDMS records of participating agencies.

With regard to FRTIB-11, FRTIB will continue to collect and maintain Public and Confidential Financial Disclosure Reports and other ethics program records and will rely upon the existing government-wide systems of records entitled OGE/GOVT-1, Executive Branch Personnel Public Financial Disclosure Reports and Other Name-Retrieved Ethics Program Records (68 FR 24722 May 8, 2003) and OGE/GOVT-2, Executive Branch Confidential Financial Disclosure Reports (68 FR 24722 May 8, 2003) which are written to cover all federal government financial disclosure reports and other ethics program records.

Eliminating these notices will have no adverse impacts on individuals, but will promote the overall streamlining and management of FRTIB's Privacy Act record systems.

(2) FRTIB Is Proposing To Create General Routine Uses for All of Its Systems of Records

The following routine uses are incorporated by reference into various systems of records, as set forth below.

G1. Routine Use—Audit: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to an agency, organization, or individual for the purpose of performing an audit or oversight operations as authorized by law, but only such information as is necessary and relevant to such audit or oversight function when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to this system of records. Individuals provided information under this routine use are subject to the same Privacy Act requirements and limitations on disclosure as are applicable to FRTIB officers and employees.

G2. Routine Use—Breach Mitigation and Notification: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when: (1) FRTIB suspects or has confirmed that the security or confidentiality of information in the system of records has been compromised; (2) FRTIB has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed compromise there is a risk of harm to economic or property interests, identity theft or fraud, or harm to the security or integrity of this system or other systems or programs (whether maintained by FRTIB or another agency or entity) that rely upon the compromised information; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the FRTIB's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed compromise and prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

G3. Routine Use—Clearance Processing: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to an appropriate federal, state, local, tribal, foreign, or international agency, if the information is relevant and necessary to a requesting agency's decision concerning the hiring or retention of an individual, or issuance of a security clearance, background investigation, license, contract, grant, or other benefit, or if the information is relevant and necessary to a FRTIB decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit and when disclosure is appropriate to the proper performance of the official duties of the person making the request.

G4. Routine Use—Congressional Inquiries: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a Congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from that Congressional office made at the request of the individual to whom the record pertains.

G5. Routine Use—Contractors, et al.: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to contractors, grantees, experts, consultants, the agents thereof, and others performing or working on a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement, or other assignment for FRTIB, when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to this system of records. Individuals provided information under this routine use are subject to the same Privacy Act requirements and limitations on disclosure as are applicable to FRTIB officers and employees.

G6. Routine Use—Debt Collection: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to the Department of Justice, the Department of Treasury, or to a consumer reporting agency for collection action on any delinquent debt, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(12).

G7. Routine Use—Former Employees: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a former employee of the FRTIB, in accordance with applicable regulations, for purposes of responding to an official inquiry by a federal, state, or local government entity or professional licensing authority; or facilitating communications with a former employee that may be necessary for personnel-related or other official purposes where the FRTIB requires information or consultation assistance from the former employee regarding a matter within that person's former area of responsibility.

G8. Routine Use—Investigations, Third Parties: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to third parties during the course of a law enforcement investigation to the extent necessary to obtain information pertinent to the investigation, provided disclosure is appropriate to the proper performance of the official duties of the third party officer making the disclosure.

G9. Routine Use—Investigations, Other Agencies: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to appropriate federal, state, local, tribal, or foreign government agencies or multilateral governmental organizations for the purpose of investigating or prosecuting the violations of, or for enforcing or implementing, a statute, rule, regulation, order, license, or treaty where FRTIB determines that the information would assist in the enforcement of civil or criminal laws.

G10. Routine Use—Law Enforcement Intelligence: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a federal, state, tribal, local, or foreign government agency or organization, or international organization, lawfully engaged in collecting law enforcement intelligence information, whether civil or criminal, or charged with investigating, prosecuting, enforcing or implementing civil or criminal laws, related rules, regulations or orders, to enable these entities to carry out their law enforcement responsibilities, including the collection of law enforcement intelligence.

G11. Routine Use—Law Enforcement Referrals: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to an appropriate federal, state, tribal, local, international, or foreign agency or other appropriate authority charged with investigating or prosecuting a violation or enforcing or implementing a law, rule, regulation, or order, where a record, either on its face or in conjunction with other information, indicates a violation or potential violation of law, which includes criminal, civil, or regulatory violations and such disclosure is proper and consistent with the official duties of the person making the disclosure.

G12. Routine Use—Litigation, DOJ or Outside Counsel: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to the Department of Justice, FRTIB's outside counsel, other federal agency conducting litigation or in proceedings before any court, adjudicative or administrative body, when: (1) FRTIB, or (b) any employee of FRTIB in his or her official capacity, or (c) any employee of FRTIB in his or her individual capacity where DOJ or FRTIB has agreed to represent the employee, or (d) the United States or any agency thereof, is a party to the litigation or has an interest in such litigation, and FRTIB determines that the records are both relevant and necessary to the litigation and the use of such records is compatible with the purpose for which FRTIB collected the records.

G13. Routine Use—Litigation, Opposing Counsel: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a court, magistrate, or administrative tribunal in the course of presenting evidence, including disclosures to opposing counsel or witnesses in the course of civil discovery, litigation, or settlement negotiations or in connection with criminal law proceedings or in response to a subpoena.

G14. Routine Use—NARA/Records Management: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) or other federal government agencies pursuant to the Federal Records Act.

G15. Routine Use—Redress: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a federal, state, tribal, local, international, or foreign government agency or entity for the purpose of consulting with that agency or entity: (1) To assist in making a determination regarding redress for an individual in connection with the operations of a FRTIB program; (2) for the purpose of verifying the identity of an individual seeking redress in connection with the operations of a FRTIB program; or (3) for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of information submitted by an individual who has requested such redress on behalf of another individual.

G16. Routine Use—Security Threat: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to federal and foreign government intelligence or counterterrorism agencies when FRTIB reasonably believes there to be a threat or potential threat to national or international security for which the information may be useful in countering the threat or potential threat, when FRTIB reasonably believes such use is to assist in anti-terrorism efforts, and disclosure is appropriate to the proper performance of the official duties of the person making the disclosure.

G17. Routine Use—Testing: A record from this system of records may be disclosed to appropriate federal, state, local, tribal, or foreign governmental agencies or multilateral governmental organizations where FRTIB is aware of a need to utilize relevant data for purposes of testing new technology and systems designed to enhance security or identify other violations of law.

(3) FRTIB Is Proposing To Revise the Purpose of and Routine Uses to Four Systems of Records, and To Make Technical and Clarifying Changes to These Systems of Records

(a) FRTIB-2, Personnel Security Investigation Files

FRTIB is proposing to revise the purpose of and routine uses to FRTIB-2, Personnel Security Investigation Files (last published at 77 FR 11534 (February 27, 2012)). The existing purpose focuses on documenting and supporting decisions regarding access to FRTIB information and using it to process suitability, eligibility, and fitness for duty determinations. FRTIB is proposing to add the following sentence to the purpose: "The records may also be used to help streamline and make more efficient the investigations and adjudications process generally." FRTIB is also proposing minor technical amendments to the purpose of the system to reflect the fact that the system of records deals with sensitive FRTIB information.

FRTIB is also proposing to reorder the routine uses for FRTIB-2, Personnel Security Investigation Files (this change is being made to all existing systems of records to the extent necessary to make all of FRTIB's notices uniform and to reflect the addition of FRTIB's proposed general routine uses). FRTIB is proposing to add fifteen general routine uses to apply to FRTIB-2, including G1 through G5; G7 through G9; and G11 through G17.

FRTIB is proposing to correct and update the system name; security classification; system location; categories of individuals covered by the system; categories of records in the system; authority for maintenance of the system; purpose; routine uses; disclosure to consumer reporting agencies; storage; retrievability; safeguards; retention and disposal; system manager and address; notification procedure; record access procedures; contesting records procedures; record source categories; and exemptions claimed for the system. Although FRTIB is proposing changes to the exemptions claimed for FRTIB-2, Personnel Security Investigation Files, the exemption itself will not change; rather, these changes are clarifying in nature.

(b) FRTIB-5, Employee Payroll, Leave, and Attendance Records

FRTIB is proposing to revise the purpose of and routine uses to FRTIB-5, Employee Payroll, Leave, and Attendance Records (last published at 77 FR 11534 (February 27, 2012)). The existing purpose focuses on FRTIB's payroll records. FRTIB is proposing to expand the purpose to include records concerning "leave, attendance, and payments, including determinations relating the amounts to be paid to employees, the distribution of pay according to employee direction (for allotments, to financial institutions, and for other authorized purposes), and for tax withholdings and other authorized deductions."

FRTIB is also proposing to reorder the routine uses for FRTIB-5, Employee Attendance, Payroll, and Leave Records (this change is being made to all existing systems of records to the extent necessary to make all of FRTIB's notices uniform and to reflect the addition of FRTIB's proposed general routine uses). FRTIB is proposing to add two system-specific routine uses and sixteen general routine uses to apply to FRTIB-5, including G1 through G16.

FRTIB is proposing to correct and update the system name; security classification; system location; categories of individuals covered by the system; categories of records in the system; authority for maintenance of the system; purpose; routine uses; disclosure to consumer reporting agencies; storage; retrievability; safeguards; retention and disposal; system manager and address; notification procedure; record access procedures; contesting records procedures; record source categories; and exemptions claimed for the system.

(d) FRTIB-9, Emergency Notification Files

FRTIB is proposing to revise the purpose of and routine uses to FRTIB-9, Emergency Notification Records (last published at 77 FR 11534 (February 27, 2012)). The existing purpose focused on the location and notification of individuals during emergencies, as well as the creation of social rosters. FRTIB is proposing to remove reference to social rosters and to enable the Agency to use this information for business continuity purposes.

FRTIB is proposing to reorder the routine uses for FRTIB-9, Emergency Notification Records (this change is being made to all existing systems of records to the extent necessary to make all of FRTIB's notices uniform and to reflect the addition of FRTIB's proposed general routine uses). FRTIB is also proposing to add fourteen general routine uses to apply to FRTIB-9, including G1 through G2; G4 through G5; G7 through G9; and G11 through G17.

FRTIB is proposing to correct and update the system name; security classification; system location; categories of individuals covered by the system; categories of records in the system; authority for maintenance of the system; purpose; routine uses; storage; retrievability; safeguards; system manager and address; notification procedure; record access procedures; and contesting records procedures. Although FRTIB is proposing changes to the exemptions claimed for FRTIB-9, Emergency Notification Records, the exemption itself will not change; rather, these changes are clarifying in nature.

(e) FRTIB-13, Fraud and Forgery Records

FRTIB is proposing to revise the purpose of and routine uses to FRTIB-13, Fraud and Forgery Records (last published at 77 FR 11534 (February 27, 2012)). The existing purpose narrowly applied to records pertaining to fraud and forgery participants committed or alleged to have committed against their own accounts. FRTIB is proposing to broaden the scope of this system of records to include records pertaining to fraud or forgery committed by participants, beneficiaries, and third parties affecting a participant account. Moreover, FRTIB is proposing to expand the scope of this system to include records relating to third parties alleged to have misappropriated or to have attempted to misappropriate the Agency's name, brand, or logo.

FRTIB is also proposing to reorder the routine uses for FRTIB-13, Fraud and Forgery Records (this change is being made to all existing systems of records to the extent necessary to make all of FRTIB's notices uniform and to reflect the addition of FRTIB's proposed general routine uses). FRTIB is proposing to add twelve general routine uses to apply to FRTIB-13, including G1 through G2; G4 through G5; G8 through G14; and G16.

FRTIB is proposing to correct and update the security classification; system location; categories of individuals covered by the system; categories of records in the system; purpose; routine uses; disclosure to consumer reporting agencies; storage; retrievability; safeguards; system manager and address; notification procedure; record access procedures; contesting records procedures; record source categories; and exemptions claimed for the system. Although FRTIB is proposing changes to the exemptions claimed for FRTIB-13, Fraud and Forgery Records, the exemption itself will not change; rather, these changes are clarifying in nature.

(4) FRTIB Is Proposing To Create Two New Systems of Records*(a) FRTIB-14—FRTIB Legal Case Files*

FRTIB is proposing to establish a new system of records entitled, FRTIB-14, Legal Case Files." The proposed system of records is necessary to assist FRTIB attorneys in providing legal advice to FRTIB personnel on a wide variety of legal issues; to collect and maintain information of any individual who is or will be in litigation with the Agency; to represent FRTIB during litigation; and to catalogue, investigate, litigate, or otherwise resolve any case or matter handled by the Office of General Counsel.

These files may include: Notes, reports, legal opinions and memoranda; settlements; agreements; documentary evidence; claims and records regarding discrimination; correspondence; contracts; contract proposals and other procurement documents; TSP documents; participant, beneficiary, and alternate payee files; initial and final FRTIB determinations of FERSA matters; Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act requests and appeals, and decisions of those requests and appeals; drafts and legal reviews of proposed personnel actions; personnel records; litigation files; employee relations files; witness statements; summonses and subpoenas; affidavits; court transcripts; discovery requests and responses; and breach reports and supporting documents. FRTIB is proposing to add four system-specific routine uses and sixteen general routine uses to apply to FRTIB-14, including G1 through G16.

(b) FRTIB-15—Internal Investigations of Harassment and Hostile Work Environment Allegations

FRTIB is proposing to establish a new system of record entitled, "FRTIB-15, Internal Investigations of Harassment and Hostile Work Environment Allegations." The proposed system of records is necessary for the purpose of upholding FRTIB's policy to provide for a work environment free from all forms of harassment and will cover files that identify by name, or other personal identifier, individuals who have asserted that they have been subjected to harassment or hostile work environment at FRTIB, as well as individuals about whom such complaints have been made.

These files may include: The name, position, grade, and supervisor(s) of the complainant and the accused; the complaint; witness statements; interview notes; legal memoranda; reports of investigation; final decisions and corrective actions taken; and related correspondence and exhibits. FRTIB is proposing to add one system-specific routine use and sixteen general routine uses to apply to FRTIB-15, including G1 through G16.

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(11), interested persons are invited to submit written comments on the proposal of these two systems of records. A report on the proposed systems has been sent to Congress and the Office of Management and Budget for their awareness.

Greg Long,

Executive Director, Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board.

FRTIB-2

SYSTEM NAME:

Personnel Security Investigation Files.

SECURITY CLASSIFICATION:

Most personnel identity verification records are not classified. However, in some cases, records of certain individuals, or portions of some records may be classified in the interest of national security.

SYSTEM LOCATION(S):

Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board, 77 K Street NE., Suite 1000, Washington, DC 20002. Records may also be kept at an additional location as backup for Business Continuity purposes. For background investigations adjudicated by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), OPM may retain copies of those files pursuant to OPM/Central-9, Personnel Investigations Records.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Individuals who require regular, ongoing access to FRTIB facilities, information technology systems, or sensitive information, including current and former applicants for employment or contracts, federal employees, government contractors, students, interns, volunteers, affiliates, experts, instructors, and consultants to federal programs who undergo a background investigation for the purposes of determining suitability for employment, contractor fitness, credentialing for HSPD-12, and/or access to FRTIB facilities or information technology systems. This system also includes individuals accused of security violations or found in violation of FRTIB's security policies.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Name; former names; date and place of birth; Social Security number; home address; email address(es); phone numbers; employment history; residential history; education and degrees earned; citizenship; passport information; names, date and place of birth, Social Security number, and citizenship information for spouse or cohabitant; the name and marriage information for current and former spouse(s); names of associates and references and their contact information; names, dates and places of birth, citizenship, and address of relatives; names of relatives who work for the federal government; information on foreign contacts and activities; association records; information on loyalty to the United States; criminal history; mental health history; information pertaining to drug use; financial information; fingerprints; information from the Internal Revenue Service pertaining to income tax returns; credit reports; information pertaining to security clearances; other agency reports furnished to FRTIB in connection with the background investigation process; summaries of personal and third party interviews conducted during the background investigation; results of suitability decisions; level of security clearance; date of issuance of security clearance; including, but not limited to forms such as SF-85, SF-85P, SF-86, SF-87, SF-306; FD-258; and other information generated from above, where applicable.

Records pertaining to security violations may contain information pertaining to circumstances of the violation; witness statements, investigator's notes, security violations; agency action taken; requests for appeal; and documentation of agency action taken in response to security violations.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

5 U.S.C. 3301; 44 U.S.C. 3101; Executive Order 10450; Executive Order 13488; 5 CFR 731 and 736; 61 FR 6428; and Homeland Security Presidential Directive 12.

PURPOSE(S):

The records in this system of records are used to document and support decisions regarding clearance for access to sensitive FRTIB information, the ability to receive and the suitability, eligibility, and fitness for service of applicants for federal employment and contract positions, including students, interns, or volunteers to the extent their duties require access to federal facilities, information systems, or applications. The records may also be used to help streamline and make more efficient the investigations and adjudications process generally. The records may also be used to document security violations and supervisory actions taken in response to such violations.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Information about covered individuals may be disclosed without consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a(b); and:

1. General Routine Uses G1 through G5; G7 through G9; G7 through G9; and G11 through G16 apply to this system of records (see Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses).

2. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to any authorized source or potential source from which information is requested in the course of an investigation concerning the retention of an employee or other personnel action (other than hiring), or the retention of a security clearance, contact, grant, license, or other benefit, to the extent necessary to identify the individual, to inform the source of the nature and purpose of the investigation, or to identify the type of information requested.

3. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to OPM, the Merit Systems Protection Board, the Federal Labor Relations Authority, the Office of Special Counsel, or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to carry out its respective authorized functions (under 5 U.S.C. 1103, 1204, and 7105 and 42 U.S.C. 2000e-4, in that order).

4. To the Office of Management and Budget when necessary to the review of private relief legislation pursuant to OMB Circular No. A-19.

5. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a Federal, State, local, foreign, or tribal or other public authority the fact that this system of records contains information relevant to the retention of an employee, the retention of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance or retention of a license, grant, or other benefit. The other agency or licensing organization may then make a request supported by the written consent of the individual for the entire record if it so chooses. No disclosure will be made unless the information has been determined to be sufficiently reliable to support a referral to another office within the agency or to another Federal agency for criminal, civil, administrative personnel or regulatory action.

6. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to the news media or the general public, factual information the disclosure of which would be in the public interest and which would not constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, consistent with Freedom of Information Act standards.

7. A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a Federal, State, or local agency, or other appropriate entities or individuals, or through established liaison channels to selected foreign governments, in order to enable an intelligence agency to carry out its responsibilities under the National Security Act of 1947 as amended, the CIA Act of 1949 as amended, Executive Order 12333 or any successor order, applicable national security directives, or classified implementing procedures approved by the Attorney General and promulgated pursuant to such statutes, orders or directives.

DISCLOSURE TO CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCIES:

None.
