[Docket No. PHMSA–2015–0168 (Notice No. 15–14)]

Hazardous Materials: Notification of Anticipated Delay in Administrative Appeal Decisions

AGENCY: Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration (PHMSA), DOT.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice advises the public that PHMSA is currently reviewing administrative appeals on a recently issued final rule titled, “Hazardous Materials: Enhanced Tank Car Standards and Operational Controls for High-Hazard Flammable Trains” (80 FR 26643). In accordance with applicable regulatory requirements, this notice provides notification to parties having brought certain administrative appeals of the anticipated delay in processing these administrative appeals.

II. Notification of Anticipated Delay in Appeal Decisions

49 CFR 106.130(a)(4) provides that if PHMSA does not issue a decision on whether to grant or deny an administrative appeal within 90 days after the date that the final rule is published in the Federal Register and that we anticipate a substantial delay in making a decision, PHMSA will notify the parties having brought administrative appeals directly and provide an expected decision date. In addition, PHMSA will publish a notice of the delay in the Federal Register. Due to the complexity of the appeals received, we anticipate delays in making administrative appeal decisions as we will require additional time to adequately review and consider the appeals. As a result, in accordance with 49 CFR 106.130(a)(4), we are publishing this notice in the Federal Register to notify the public, and we will be directly contacting parties having brought these administrative appeals shortly.

Issued in Washington, DC, on August 4, 2015.

Magdy El-Sibaie, Associate Administrator for Hazardous Materials Safety.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
Office of the Comptroller of the Currency

Agency Information Collection Activities: Information Collection Renewal; Comment Request; Market Risk

AGENCY: Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), Treasury.

ACTION: Notice and request for comment.

SUMMARY: The OCC, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on a continuing information collection, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA).

Under the PRA, Federal agencies are required to publish notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information, including each proposed extension of an existing collection of information, and to allow 60 days for public comment in response to the notice. In accordance with the requirements of the PRA, the OCC may not conduct or sponsor, and the respondent is not required to respond to, an information collection unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. The OCC is soliciting comment concerning the renewal of its information collection titled, “Market Risk.”

DATES: You should submit written comments by: October 9, 2015.

ADDRESSES: Because paper mail in the Washington, DC area and at the OCC is subject to delay, commenters are encouraged to submit comments by email, if possible. Comments may be sent to: Legislative and Regulatory Activities Division, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Attention: 1557–0247, 400 7th Street SW., Suite 3E–218, Mail Stop 9W–11, Washington, DC 20219. In addition, comments may be sent by fax to (571) 465–4326 or by
A new national mortgage disclosure rule

The Department of Housing and Urban Development is proposing a new mortgage disclosure rule pursuant to the Consumer Financial Protection Act of 2010. The rule would require mortgage lenders to provide a mortgage disclosure form that will make it easier for consumers to compare loan offers. The proposed rule would apply to home purchase and home improvement mortgages, and would require mortgage lenders to provide borrowers with information about the total amount of the loan, the interest rate, and other key features of the loan. The rule is intended to help consumers make more informed decisions about their mortgage choices. Comments are due by October 26, 2015. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov.
