AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

The United States Information and Educational Exchange Act of 1948, as amended (22 U.S.C. 1431, et seq.); the U.S. International Broadcasting Act of 1994, as amended (22 U.S.C. 6201, et seq.); and the Foreign Affairs Consolidation Act of 1998 (Pub. L. 105-277).

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Background material used to determine eligibility for training; justification for training reports and record-keeping; evaluation and selection of lecturers and contractors to provide training; preparation of reports to Congress and other Government agencies on training provided and training costs, as well as projected training needs and costs.

Information is made available on a need-to-know basis to personnel of the BBG as may be required in the performance of their official duties. The principal users of this information outside the BBG are personnel officers in other Government agencies as a result of transfer, detail, or reassignment of the individual to whom the record pertains, other agencies considering employees for detail or transfer, and investigators performing their job functions.

The information may also be released to other Government agencies that have statutory or other lawful authority to maintain such information. Also see Statement of General Routine Uses.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Storage: Paper records stored in file folders and file cabinets. Computer records stored on computer drives.

Retrievability: Manually retrieved by name, by computer generated lists of training statistics, or by training course title or description.

Safeguards: Access to files is limited only to authorized BBG employees having an official use or need for the information. All files are maintained in locked file cabinets during non-duty hours and are protected by office personnel when being used during duty hours. All files are contained within a secure building with access only to individuals with appropriate identification. All users of personal information in connection with the performance of their jobs protect information from public view and from unauthorized personnel entering an unsupervised office or workspace.

Retention and disposal: Training records maintained until employee is separated, until records are no longer needed, or otherwise as directed by the General Records Schedule. Budget records and cost statistics are kept for three to five years or otherwise as directed by the General Records Schedule.
