The Food and Drug Administration Food Safety Modernization Act: Final Rules To Establish Requirements for Current Good Manufacturing Practice, Hazard Analysis, and Risk-Based Preventive Controls for Human and Animal Food; Public Meeting

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Notification of public meeting.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA or we) is announcing a public meeting entitled “FDA Food Safety Modernization Act: Final Rules to Establish Requirements for Current Good Manufacturing Practice, Hazard Analysis, and Risk-Based Preventive Controls for Human and Animal Food.” The public meeting will provide interested persons an opportunity to discuss the final rules for current good manufacturing practice, hazard analysis, and risk-based preventive controls for human and animal food (the preventive controls final rules) and FDA’s comprehensive planning effort for the next phase of the FDA Food Safety Modernization Act (FSMA) implementation, which involves putting in place the new public health prevention measures and the risk-based industry oversight framework that is at the core of FSMA. The purpose of the public meeting is to brief stakeholders and interested persons on the key components of the preventive controls final rules, respond to questions, and discuss the next phase of FSMA implementation with respect to human and animal food preventive controls requirements.

DATES: See section III, “How to Participate in the Public Meeting” in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section of this document for dates and times of the public meeting, closing dates for advance registration, and requesting special accommodations due to disability.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The FDA Food Safety Modernization Act (FSMA) (Pub. L.111–353), signed into law by President Obama on January 4, 2011, enables FDA to better protect public health by helping to ensure the safety and security of the food supply. FSMA amends the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (the FD&C Act) to establish the foundation of a modernized, prevention-based food safety system. Among other things, FSMA requires FDA to issue regulations requiring preventive controls for human food and animal food, setting standards for produce safety, and requiring importers to perform certain activities to help ensure that the food they bring into the United States is produced in a manner consistent with U.S. standards. FSMA was the first major legislative reform of FDA’s food safety authorities in more than 70 years. In the Federal Register of January 16, 2013 (78 FR 3646), we proposed to amend our regulations for Current Good Manufacturing Practice In Manufacturing, Packing, or Holding Human Food to modernize it and to add requirements for domestic and foreign facilities that are required to register under the FD&C Act to establish and implement hazard analysis and risk-based preventive controls for human food. We also proposed to revise certain definitions in our current regulation for Registration of Food Facilities to clarify the scope of the exemption from registration requirements provided for “farms” and, in so doing, to clarify which domestic and foreign facilities are subject to the requirements for hazard analysis and risk-based preventive controls for food. The preventive controls final rules and related fact sheets are available on FDA’s FSMA Web page located at http://www.fda.gov/FSMA.
II. Purpose and Format of the Public Meeting

FDA is holding the public meeting on the two preventive controls final rules to address what is different from the proposals; discuss the plans for guidance documents and outstanding issues that might be addressed in guidance; provide an update on the development of implementation work plans; and answer questions.

These two preventive controls final rules are the first of several final rules that will establish the foundation of, and central framework for, the modern food safety system envisioned by Congress in FSMA. We will not use any information or data submitted during the public meeting to inform any FSMA rulemakings where the comment periods have closed.

There will be an opportunity for stakeholders who are unable to participate in person to join the meeting via webinar. (See section III of this document for more information on the webinar option.)

III. How To Participate in the Public Meeting

We are holding the public meeting on October 20, 2015, from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m., at Chicago Marriott Downtown Magnificent Mile, 540 North Michigan Ave, Chicago, IL 60611. Due to limited space and time, we encourage all persons who wish to attend the meeting to register in advance. There is no fee to register for the public meeting, and registration will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Early registration is recommended because seating is limited. Onsite registration will be accepted, as space permits, after all preregistered attendees are seated.

Table 1 of this document provides information on participation in the public meeting.
