SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

On July 6, 2015, HUD published in the Federal Register a proposed rule that would have added §203.372, establishing a maximum time period for filing a claim for insurance benefits, and §203.317a, providing that the contract of insurance would be terminated if a mortgagee failed to file a claim within the maximum time period specified in §203.372, to 24 CFR part 203. The proposed rule would have also revised §203.318 to refer to termination of the insurance contract under new §203.317a. Additionally, the proposed rule would amend §203.402, and revise the title of §203.474, related to proposals concerning the curtailment of interest and the disallowance of certain expenses incurred by a mortgagee as a result of the mortgagee’s failure to timely initiate foreclosure or timely take such other action that is a prerequisite to submission of a claim for insurance.

In response to public comments expressing concern over the implementation of the proposed provisions regarding the maximum time period within which an FHA-approved mortgagee must file a claim with FHA for insurance benefits, HUD is withdrawing the proposed additions of §§203.317a and 203.372, and proposed revision to §203.318. HUD will publish in the Federal Register any revised maximum time period for claim filing provisions in a proposed rule and solicit public comment on it.
