Information Collection Request Title: Sustainability study of federally-funded programs designed to prevent or delay teen pregnancy (TPP Sustainability Study).

Abstract: The Office of Adolescent Health (OAH), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) is requesting approval by OMB on a new collection. The TPP Sustainability Study is a key piece of OAH's broad and ongoing effort to comprehensively evaluate all of its teen pregnancy prevention funding efforts which consist of: (1) The Teen Pregnancy Prevention Program (TPP); the (2) Pregnancy Assistance Fund (PAF); and the Communitywide program funded through OAH and the Centers for Disease Control (CDC).

The proposed information request includes instruments that will collect data on: (1) Whether and how federally-funded programs have been sustained; (2) factors affecting program sustainability; (3) methods and strategies employed by grantees to sustain programs; (4) support and technical assistance that grantees received related to sustaining the programs; and (5) key lessons learned based on the outcomes of these efforts. The data will be analyzed and incorporated into study deliverables that clearly describe grantees' sustainability efforts for all audiences and highlight key challenges, successes, and lessons learned for future funding and program implementation.

The data will be used for the study team to identify key factors in program sustainability, the strategies that either worked or did not work in sustaining programs over time, and the types of support and assistance grantees required in order to sustain programs. Collecting this data is crucial to closing an existing gap in OAH knowledge about how to support the sustainability efforts of current and future grantees, including the 2015-2020 TPP grantee cohort and the 2013-2016 PAF cohort.

Likely Respondents: Program administrators at 117 grantee organizations.
