INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

Cold-Rolled Steel Flat Products From Brazil, China, India, Japan, Korea, Russia, and the United Kingdom:
Scheduling of the Final Phase of Countervailing Duty and Antidumping Duty Investigations

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Commission hereby gives notice of the scheduling of the final phase of countervailing and antidumping duty investigations Nos. 701–TA–540–544 and 731–TA–1283–1287, 1289–1290 (Final) pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 (“the Act”) to determine whether an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports of certain cold-rolled steel flat products imports of Brazil, China, India, Japan, Russia, and the United Kingdom, and that countervailable subsidies are being provided to producers and exporters of certain cold-rolled steel flat products from Brazil, China, India, and Russia.

The Department of Commerce has preliminarily determined that countervailable subsidies are not being provided to producers and exporters of certain cold-rolled steel flat products from Brazil, China, India, and Russia. The Department of Commerce has preliminarily determined that countervailable subsidies are being provided to producers and exporters of certain cold-rolled steel flat products from China, India, and Russia.

The products described include products of either rectangular or square cross-section, either made or broken in coils at least twice the thickness. The products described above may be rectangular, square, circular, or other non-rectangular cross-section products which have been "worked in successively superimposed layers, spirally oscillating, etc.") or products with a width or other lateral measurement ("width") of 12.7 mm or greater, regardless of form of coil (e.g., in successively superimposed layers, spirally oscillating, etc.). The products covered also include products not in coils (e.g., in straight lengths) of a thickness of less than 4.75 mm and a width that is 12.7 mm or greater, regardless of form of coil (e.g., in successively superimposed layers, spirally oscillating, etc.). The products covered also include products not in coils (e.g., in straight lengths) of a thickness of 4.75 mm or more and with a width exceeding 150 mm and measuring at least twice the thickness. The products described above may be rectangular, square, circular, or other non-rectangular cross-section products which have been "worked in successively superimposed layers, spirally oscillating, etc.") or products with a width or other lateral measurement ("width") of 12.7 mm or greater, regardless of form of coil (e.g., in successively superimposed layers, spirally oscillating, etc.).

The Commission hereby gives notice of the scheduling of the final phase of these investigations, which is being scheduled pursuant to sections 705(b) and 731(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(b) and 1677(b)), as a result of affirmative preliminary determinations by the Department of Commerce that certain benefits which constitute subsidies within the meaning of section 703 of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1671b) are being provided to producers, or exporters in Brazil, China, India, and Russia of cold-rolled steel flat products, and that such products from Brazil, China, India, Korea, Russia, and the United Kingdom are being sold in the United States at less than fair value within the meaning of section 733 of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1673b). The investigations were requested in petitions filed on July 28, 2015 by AK Steel Corporation (West Chester, Ohio), ArcelorMittal USA LLC (Chicago, Illinois), Nucor Corporation (Charlotte, North Carolina), Steel Dynamics, Inc. (Fort Wayne, Indiana), and United States Steel Corporation (Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania).

For further information concerning the conduct of this phase of the investigations, hearing procedures, and rules of general application, consult the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure, part 201, subparts A and B (19 CFR part 201), and part 207, subparts A and C (19 CFR part 207).

Participation in the investigations and public service list.—Persons, including industrial users of the subject merchandise and, if the merchandise is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations, wishing to participate in the final phase of these investigations as parties must file an entry of appearance with the Secretary to the Commission, as provided in section 201.11 of the Commission’s rules, no later than 21 days prior to the hearing date specified in this notice. A party that filed a notice of appearance during the preliminary phase of the investigations need not file an additional notice of appearance during this final phase. The Secretary will maintain a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigations.

Limited disclosure of business proprietary information (BPI) under an administrative protective order (APO) and BPI service list.—Pursuant to section 207.7(a) of the Commission’s rules, the Secretary will make BPI gathered in the final phase of these investigations available to authorized applicants under the APO issued in the investigations, provided that the application is made no later than 21 days prior to the hearing date specified in this notice. Authorized applicants must represent interested parties, as defined by 19 U.S.C. 1677(9), who are...
