SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Indian Affairs has conducted several tribal consultations and listening sessions over the past two years regarding funding to tribes for CSC and is now presenting a draft policy to provide full funding for CSC incurred by tribes under ISDEAA self-determination contracts and Self-Governance funding agreements. The draft policy provides a streamlined approach to calculating CSC that reflects the Department’s commitment to paying all Tribes full CSC.

We will be hosting the following consultation sessions to discuss this draft CSC policy and invites Tribes’ participation:

This Liquor Code is adopted for the purpose of governing, controlling and regulating liquor possession, distribution, sales and service within the Nation’s reservation. Consistent with the laws of the United States, the tribes and the United States. Consistent with the laws of the United States, the control of liquor on the Yavapai-Apache Nation Reservation remains subject to the legislative enactments of the Nation in the exercise of its governmental powers over the Reservation.

B. Federal law prohibits the introduction of liquor into Indian Country (18 U.S.C. § 1154), and authorizes tribal governments to decide when and to what extent liquor possession, sales, and service shall be permitted within their reservations (18 U.S.C. § 1161) in a manner deemed consistent with state liquor laws.

C. The Tribal Council, as the governing body of the Nation under Article IV, Section 1 of the Constitution of the Yavapai-Apache Nation (hereinafter “Tribal Council”), has approved the issuance of liquor licenses in accordance with the liquor control laws of the state of Arizona. The limitation and regulation of liquor sales as provided in this Code will increase the Nation’s ability to control possession and distribution of liquor within the Nation’s Reservation.

Yavapai-Apache Nation of the Camp Verde Indian Reservation Liquor Code

AGENCY: Bureau of Indian Affairs, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice publishes the liquor code of the Yavapai-Apache Nation of the Camp Verde Reservation. The liquor code allows the Nation to govern, control and regulate liquor possession, distribution, sales, and service within the Nation’s reservation to serve the best interests of the Nation.

DATES: This code shall become effective March 25, 2016.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ms. Sharlot Johnson, Tribal Government Services Officer, Western Region, Office, Bureau of Indian Affairs, 2600 North Central Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona 85004, Telephone: (602) 379–6786, Fax: (602) 379–4100; or Laurel Iron Cloud, Chief, Division of Tribal Government Services, Office of Indian Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs, 1849 C Street NW., MS–4513–MIB, Washington, DC 20240, Telephone: (202) 513–7641.

This notice is published in accordance with the authority delegated by the Secretary of the Interior to the Assistant Secretary-Indian Affairs. I certify that the Yavapai-Apache Nation of the Camp Verde Indian Reservation Tribal Council duly adopted the Yavapai-Apache Nation Liquor Code by Resolution No. 147–15 on August 27, 2015.

Dated: March 21, 2016.
Lawrence S. Roberts,
Acting Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs.

YAVAPAI-APACHE NATION LIQUOR CODE

SECTION 101: TITLE

This Liquor Code is adopted by the Yavapai-Apache Nation (“YAN” or “Nation”) and shall be known as the Yavapai-Apache Nation Liquor Code (referred to herein as “Liquor Code” or “Code”).

SECTION 102: FINDINGS

The Tribal Council finds as follows:

A. The introduction, possession, and sale of liquor in Indian Country is a matter of particular concern to Indian tribes and the United States. Consistent with the laws of the United States, the control of liquor on the Yavapai-Apache Nation Reservation remains subject to the legislative enactments of the Nation in the exercise of its governmental powers over the Reservation.

B. Federal law prohibits the introduction of liquor into Indian Country (18 U.S.C. § 1154), and authorizes tribal governments to decide when and to what extent liquor possession, sales, and service shall be permitted within their reservations (18 U.S.C. § 1161) in a manner deemed consistent with state liquor laws.

C. The Tribal Council, as the governing body of the Nation under Article IV, Section 1 of the Constitution of the Yavapai-Apache Nation (hereinafter “Tribal Council”), has approved the issuance of liquor licenses in accordance with the liquor control laws of the state of Arizona. The limitation and regulation of liquor sales as provided in this Code will increase the Nation’s ability to control possession and distribution of liquor within the Nation’s Reservation.

SECTION 103: AUTHORITY AND PURPOSE

A. This Code is enacted under authority of the Act of August 15, 1953, 67 Stat. 586, (18 U.S.C. Section 1161) and under authority of the Constitution of the Yavapai-Apache Nation (“YAN Constitution”), which authorizes the Tribal Council to exercise the following powers relevant to the adoption of this Liquor Code:

1. YAN Constitution, Article V(a), “To represent the Tribe and act in all matters that concern the health and welfare of the Tribe, and to make decisions not inconsistent with or contrary to this constitution.”

2. YAN Constitution, Article V (o), to enact codes and ordinances governing law enforcement on lands within the jurisdiction of the Tribe.

3. YAN Constitution, Article V (u), “To exercise civil jurisdiction over all tribal members and any non-member of the Tribe to the extent permitted by federal law.”

4. YAN Constitution, Article V (v), “To enact laws, ordinances and resolutions necessary or incidental to the exercise of its legislative powers.”

B. This Liquor Code is adopted for the purpose of governing, controlling and regulating liquor possession, distribution, sales and service within the Nation’s reservation.

SECTION 104: DEFINITIONS

A. Unless otherwise required by the context in which it is used, the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings.

1. “Alcohol” means the substance known as ethyl alcohol, hydrated oxide of ethyl, ethanol, or spirits of wine, from whatever source or by whatever process produced, and includes “spirits”.

2. “Alcoholic Beverage” is synonymous with the term “liquor” as defined in this Section 104 (4) below.

3. “Beer” means any beverage obtained by the alcoholic fermentation, infusion, or decoction of barley malt, hops, or other ingredients not drinkable, or any combination thereof.

4. “Liquor” or “Liquor Products” includes the four varieties of liquor herein defined (alcohol, spirituous liquor, wine, and beer) and means all fermented, spirituous, vinous, or malt liquor, or a combination thereof, and mixed liquor, a part of which is fermented, spirituous, vinous, or malt liquor or otherwise intoxicating in every liquid or solid or semi-solid or other substance patented or not containing alcohol, spirits, wine, or beer, and all
