

submitting a speaker nomination form.³ Due to time constraints, we may not be able to accommodate all those interested in speaking. Further details and a formal agenda will be issued prior to the technical conference. The technical conference will be open for the public to attend. Advanced registration is not required, but we encourage those planning to attend the conference to register through the Commission's Web site.⁴ We will provide nametags for those who register on or before January 28, 2016. Attendees should allow time to pass through building security procedures before the 9:30 a.m. (EST) start time of the technical conference.

Information regarding the technical conference will be posted on the Calendar of Events on the Commission's Web site, prior to the event.⁵ The technical conference will also be webcast, via the Calendar of Events, and transcribed. Transcripts will be available for a fee from Ace-Federal Reports, Inc.⁶ The webcast will remain available on the Commission's Web site for three months following the technical conference. The Capitol Connection provides technical support for the webcast and offers the option of listening to the technical conference via phone-bridge for a fee.⁷ The webcast will allow persons to listen to the technical conference, but not participate.
