National Institute of Mental Health

Request for Information on the Availability of Biological Samples to Evaluate the Technical Performance of Inflammatory Markers

SUMMARY: The National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) seeks information about the availability of data and existing biological specimens (plasma and cerebrospinal fluid (CSF)) obtained from healthy controls and clinically well-characterized individuals with mental illnesses (bipolar disorder, major depressive disorder, post-traumatic stress disorder, schizophrenia). This information will be used to identify biobanks of existing samples that could potentially be sourced to assess the technical performance of a panel of inflammation-related proteins, and to identify gaps in the availability of samples for the mental illnesses listed above.

DATES: All responses must be submitted via email to biospecimens2@mail.nih.gov by August 4, 2016.

ADDRESSES: Please direct all inquiries to: biospecimens2@mail.nih.gov.
