This voluntary information collection applies to entities regulated by the FDIC for purposes of assessing their diversity policies and practices as described in the final Interagency Policy Statement Establishing Joint Standards for Assessing the Diversity Policies and Practices of Entities Regulated by the FDIC.

DATES: Comments must be submitted on or before October 24, 2016.

AGENCIES: The FDIC, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on the revision of an existing information collection, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The FDIC is soliciting comment on the revision of the existing information collection entitled “Joint Standards for Assessing Diversity Policies and Practices” by adding a form to the information collection entitled “Diversity Self-Assessment Template for Entities Regulated by the FDIC.”

AFFETED PUBLIC: Insured financial institutions supervised by the FDIC.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 3,184 hours.

Average Response Time per Respondent: 8 hours.

Request for Comments: Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collections of information are necessary for the proper performance of the FDIC’s functions, including whether the information has practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the estimates of the burden of the collections of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collections of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. All comments will become a matter of public record.
