

and Procedure, for an exemption from the Commission's rules requiring individual service contract amendments, 46 CFR. 530.10, and the rule prohibiting duplicative tariffs, 46 CFR 520.7(a)(4). Specifically, Petitioner explains that "APL is currently majority owned by CMA CGM S.A. ("CMA CGM") a vessel operating common carrier headquartered in Marseille, France. On or about September 1, 2016, APL will become delisted from the Singaporean stock exchange and be 100% owned by CMA CGM. At that time, CMA CGM will begin to consolidate certain operations under its various brands worldwide." In particular, CMA CGM will transfer the slot allocations of its wholly owned subsidiary ANL Singapore Pte. Ltd. ("ANL") to APL effective October 1, 2016.

Petitioner requests that in lieu of publishing amendments to each of approximately 600 service contracts effected by the transfer of ANL's transpacific business, "the Commission permit APL to send a universal notice to the Commission and to each of the service contract parties." In addition, because existing ANL tariffs "will be taken over by APL and will be renumbered and republished under APL's organization number," Petitioners also seek a waiver to permit insertion of notices in existing ANL and new APL tariffs.

The Petition in its entirety is posted on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.fmc.gov/P3-16>. Comments filed in response to this Petition also will be posted on the Commission's Web site at this location.

In order for the Commission to make a thorough evaluation of the Petition, interested persons are requested to submit comments in reply to the Petition no later than September 1, 2016. Commenters must send an original and 5 copies to the Secretary, Federal Maritime Commission, 800 North Capitol Street NW., Washington, DC 20573-0001, and be served on Eric R. Swett, VP & General Counsel, Americas, APL Limited, 16220 N. Scottsdale Rd., Scottsdale, AZ 85254-1781. A text-searchable PDF copy of the comment must also be sent as an email attachment to Secretary@fmc.gov, and include in the subject line: "P3-16 (Commenter/Company Name)." Replies containing confidential information should not be submitted by email.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Proposed Information Collection Activities

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA), 44 U.S.C. 3501–3520, federal agencies must get OMB approval for each collection of information they conduct, sponsor, or require. “Collection of information” means agency requests or requirements to submit reports, keep records, or provide information to a third party. 44 U.S.C. 3502(3); 5 CFR 1320.3(c). As required by section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the PRA, the FTC is providing this opportunity for public comment before requesting that OMB extend the existing PRA clearance for the information collection requirements associated with the Commission’s Rule Concerning Disclosure of Written Consumer Product Warranty Terms and Conditions (the Consumer Product Warranty Rule or Warranty Rule), 16 CFR part 701 (OMB Control Number 3084–0111).

The FTC invites comments on: (1) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility; (2) the accuracy of the agency’s estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (4) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond. All comments must be received on or before October 24, 2016.

The Warranty Rule is one of three rules¹ that the FTC implemented pursuant to requirements of the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act, 15 U.S.C. 2301 et seq. (Warranty Act or Act).² The Warranty Rule specifies the information that must appear in a written warranty on a consumer product³ costing more than $15. The Rule tracks section 102(a) of the Warranty Act,⁴ specifying information that must appear in the written warranty and, for certain disclosures, mandates the exact language that must be used.⁵ Neither the Warranty Rule nor the Act requires that a manufacturer or retailer warrant a consumer product in writing, but if they choose to do so, the warranty must comply with the Rule.

Warranty Rule Burden Statement

Total annual hours burden: 140,280 hours.

In its 2013 submission to OMB, the FTC estimated that the information collection burden of including the disclosures required by the Warranty Rule was 116,128 hours per year. Although the Rule’s information collection requirements have not changed, this estimate slightly increases the number of manufacturers subject to the Rule based on recent Census data. Further, because most warrantors would continue to disclose this information even if there were no statute or rule requiring them to do so, staff’s estimates likely overstate the PRA-related burden attributable to the Rule. Moreover, the Warranty Rule has been in effect since 1976, and warrantors have long since modified their warranties to include the information the Rule requires.

Based on conversations with various warrantors’ representatives over the years, staff has concluded that eight hours per year is a reasonable estimate of warrantors’ PRA-related burden attributable to the Warranty Rule.⁶ This estimate takes into account ensuring that new warranties and changes to
