By submitting an entry to this competition you represent and warrant that your submission:

- Is your own work and not copied (if we have reason to believe that your submission is not your own work then we may not consider it);
- does not contain any third party intellectual property rights and/or content that you do not have permission to use; and
- is not obscene, defamatory, or in breach of any applicable legislation or regulations.

The USPTO reserves the right to cancel, suspend, and/or modify the challenge, or any part of it, for any reason, at the USPTO’s sole discretion.

Submission Requirements

- Your submission must use at least the cancer research dataset provided by the USPTO.
- Your submission must be relevant to a U.S. audience and must be in the English language only.
- You are responsible for the cost and expense (if any) of sending your submission to us and, if your submission is selected, either attending an awards event demo at the USPTO on September 26, 2016, in person or submitting a video of your presentation to be shared at the event.
- Only one project submission is permitted per person or group. In the event of a dispute over the identity of an entrant, the submission will be deemed submitted by the authorized account holder of the email address submitted during the registration process.
- Submissions that do not adhere to the requirements listed above will be automatically disqualified.

Intellectual Property

Ownership of intellectual property is determined by the following:

- Each entrant retains title and full ownership in and to their submission. Entrants expressly reserve all intellectual property rights not expressly granted under the challenge agreement.
- By participating in the challenge, each entrant hereby irrevocably grants to sponsor and administrator a limited, non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide license and right to reproduce, publicly perform, publicly display, and use the submission to the extent necessary to administer the challenge, and to publicly perform and publicly display the submission, including, without limitation, for advertising and promotional purposes relating to the challenge.
- All entrants are encouraged to open source their code to the extent possible as a continuing contribution to cancer research.
