AGENCY FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: United States Agency for International Development

ACTION: New system of records notice.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a, the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) is issuing new public notice for a system of records entitled “USAID–32 Reasonable Accommodation Records”. This action is necessary to meet the requirements of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 522a(e)(4), to publish in the Federal Register notice of the existence and character of record systems maintained by the agency.

DATES: In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 522a(e)(4) and (11), the public is given a 30-day period in which to comment. Therefore, any comments must be received on or before November 10, 2016. Unless comments are received that would require a revision, this altered system of records will become effective on November 10, 2016.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Reasonable Accommodation Records system covers USAID reasonable accommodation activities related to current and former USAID employees and applicants. The Rehabilitation Act requires USAID to provide reasonable accommodation to qualified applicants and employees with disabilities if known or requested, unless the accommodation would impose undue hardship on USAID. Reasonable accommodations provide modifications or adjustments to: (1) The job application process that enables a qualified applicant with a disability to enjoy equal employment opportunities available to persons without disabilities; (2) the work environment; and/or (3) the manner in which a position is customarily performed. The Reasonable Accommodation Records system allows USAID to collect, use, maintain, and disseminate the records needed to process, manage, and resolve reasonable accommodation requests. Records include the requests, documentation related to the request, disposition of the requests, and reasonable accommodations provided by USAID.
