Abstract of Proposed Collection

The Adoptive Family Relief Act (Pub. L. 114–70) amended Section 221(c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1201(c), to allow for the waiver or refund of certain immigrant visa fees for a lawfully adopted child, or a child coming to the United States to be adopted by a United States citizen, subject to criteria prescribed by the Secretary of State. Over 350 American families have successfully adopted children from the Democratic Republic of the Congo. However, since September 25, 2013, they have not been able to bring their adoptive children home to the United States because the Democratic Republic of the Congo suspended the issuance of “exit permits” for these children. As the permit suspension drags on, however, American families are repeatedly paying visa renewal and related fees, while also continuing to be separated from their adopted children.

The waiver or refund provides support and relief to American families seeking to bring their adoptive children home to the United States from the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and families in similar situations. This form collects information to determine the extra visa renewal fees these families have paid and refund them in accordance with the Adoptive Family Relief Act.

Methodology

The collection is hosted on the Department of State’s Web site and is printed and filled out by the individual, and submitted by mail or in person to the Consular Section where the adoption case was originally processed.

Dated: August 26, 2016.

Karin King,

Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary, Bureau of Consular Affairs, Department of State.
