

made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the Commission's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

9. Assistance to Federal Agencies and Entities—To another Federal agency or Federal entity, when the Commission determines that information from this system is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in: (a) Responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (b) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, program, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach.

10. Telecommunications Companies—To a telecommunications company providing support to permit account servicing, billing verification, and related requirements.

11. For Non-Federal Personnel—To disclose information to contractors performing or working on a contract for the Federal Government.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

The paper documents, records, files, and faxes, including but not limited to monthly telephone bills and related documents, are stored in file cabinets in "non-public" rooms in the Information Technology (IT) office suite for one year.

The electronic files, records, and data (i.e., electronic copies of these telecommunications documents), including but not limited to monthly telephone bills and related documents, are housed in the FCC's computer network databases.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS:

The records, including telephone calls, texts, faxes, and related transmissions and services, are retrieved by searching electronically by the individual's name, name of the telephone call recipient, and/or identifying communications number.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF RECORDS:

The FCC maintains and disposes of these various telephone, fax, text, and related electronic transmission service records in this in accordance with General Records Schedule 12 (GRS-12) issued by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA). Most of the records in this system are maintained for six months to three years, although some records are kept for six years, depending upon the GRS-

12 schedule requirements. The paper copy of the invoice records are destroyed after one year. All monthly telephone records (electronic copies) are sent to NARA—none are destroyed.

The disposition of the paper records is done by shredding. The electronic records are destroyed physically (electronic storage media) or by electronic erasure.

Individuals may obtain a copy of the GRS-12 Schedule at: <http://www.archives.gov/records-mgmt/grs/grs12.html>.

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

The electronic records, data, and files are maintained in the FCC computer network databases, which are protected by the FCC's IT privacy safeguards, a comprehensive and dynamic set of IT safety and security protocols and features that are designed to meet all Federal IT privacy standards, including those required by the National Institute of Standard and Technology (NIST) and the Federal Information Security Management System (FISMA). In addition, access to the information in the telephone call details electronic files databases is restricted to authorized IT supervisors and staff and to the IT contractors who maintain these computer databases. Other FCC employees and contractors may be granted access only on a "need-to-know" basis.

The paper documents and files are maintained in file cabinets in "non-public" rooms in the IT office suite. The file cabinets are locked at the end of the business day. Access to the IT offices is via a key and card-coded door.
