

the Contributor to immediately obtain a full refund of the Contribution.

Applicant submits that the Adviser reviewed its Policy and concluded that it was adequate for preventing impermissible contributions.

10. Applicant states that after learning of the Contribution, it confirmed that although the Contributor's job would not ordinarily cause him to interact with the Clients, after learning of the Contribution, the Adviser, out of an abundance of caution, instructed him not to solicit or otherwise communicate with the Clients for two years following the date of the Contribution.

11. Applicant asserts that the Clients' decisions to invest with the Adviser occurred long before the Contribution was made, in October 2016. Furthermore, no investments were made in the month-long period between the date of the Contribution and the day it was refunded. Applicant states that, at the time of the Contribution and at the time of the investments by the Clients, the Official has not had any role in the Clients' investment decisions. Applicant also submits that the apparent intent in making the Contribution was not to influence the selection or retention of the Adviser. Applicant represents that the Contributor and the Official have a long standing friendship as the Contributor worked at the Official's restaurant and lived with the Official and her ex-husband when he was in college. Applicant finally states that it was because of that relationship, and not any desire to influence the award of investment advisory business that the Contributor made the Contribution to the Official's campaign.

12. Applicant submits that neither the Adviser nor the Contributor sought to interfere with the Clients' merit-based selection process for advisory services, nor did they seek to negotiate higher fees or greater ancillary benefits than would be achieved in arms' length transactions. Applicant further submits that there was no violation of the Adviser's fiduciary duty to deal fairly or disclose material conflicts given the absence of any intent or action by the Adviser or the Contributor to influence the selection process. Applicant contends that in the case of the Contribution, the imposition of the two-year prohibition on compensation does not achieve rule 206(4)-5's purposes and would result in consequences disproportionate to the mistake that was made.

Applicant's Conditions

The Applicant agrees that any order of the Commission granting the requested relief will be subject to the following conditions:

1. The Contributor will be prohibited from discussing the business of the Adviser with any "government entity" client for which the Official is an "official," each as defined in Rule 206(4)-5(f), until October 18, 2018.

2. The Contributor will receive a written notification of this condition and will provide a quarterly certificate of compliance until October 18, 2018. Copies of the certifications will be maintained and preserved in an easily accessible place for a period of not less than five years, the first two years in an appropriate office of the Adviser, and be available for inspection by the staff of the Commission.

3. The Adviser will conduct testing reasonably designed to prevent violations of the conditions of the Order and maintain records regarding such testing, which will be maintained and preserved in an easily accessible place for a period of not less than five years, the first two years in an appropriate office of the Adviser, and be available for inspection by the staff of the Commission.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management, under delegated authority.

Eduardo A. Aleman,
Assistant Secretary.
