AboutCBOE/CBOELegalRegulatoryHome.aspx), at the Exchange’s Office of the Secretary, and at the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Recently, the Exchange proposed to amend certain rules in connection with the Exchange’s plans to list and trade ten S&P Select Sector Index options. Each S&P Select Sector Index (“Sector Index”)⁵ represents the performance of stocks that are components of the Standard & Poor’s 500 Index (“S&P 500”) within one of the following sectors (each of which is referred to as a “Sector Index”):

Sector	Symbol ⁶	Number of components
Financial	IXM	66
Energy	IXE	32
Technology	IXT	72
Health Care	IXV	61
Utilities	IXU	28
Consumer Staples	IXR	35
Industrials	IXI	68
Consumer Discretionary.	IXY	85
Materials	IXB	26
Real Estate	IXRE	32

Currently, pursuant to Rule 24.6(a), options on the Sector Indexes may trade on the Exchange from 8:30 a.m. until 3:15 p.m. Chicago time. In connection with the listing of options on the Sector Indexes,⁷ the Exchange proposes to amend Rule 24.6(b) to add options on ⁵ Each Sector Index is a narrow-based index as defined in Rule 24.1(i)(2).

⁶ These symbols represent the index. The corresponding option symbols are SIXM, SIXE, SIXT, SIXV, SIXU, SIXR, SIXI, SIXY, SIXB, and SIXRE, respectively.

⁷ The Exchange has not yet begun listing options on the Sector Indexes, but expects to begin listing them as early as April 2018.

the Sector Indexes to the list of index options that may trade on the Exchange from 8:30 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Chicago time. The Exchange understands that investors who plan to trade options on Sector Indexes would often use the prices of the stock components of Sector Indexes to price options rather than futures on the Sector Indexes (which are often used to price index options, such as options on the S&P 500). Investors similarly use pricing of underlying stocks to price shares of exchange-traded funds (“ETFs”) derived from the Sector Indexes (e.g., Select Sector SPDR ETFs), the components of which are stocks that are components of the Sector Indexes. The underlying stocks end regular trading at 3:00 p.m. Chicago time each day. Closing trading in the Select Sector Index options at the same time the stocks end regular trading⁸ will ensure investors have access to robust pricing of the underlying stock components they use to price the options, thus reducing investors’ price risk. Various other index options, including narrow-based index options, may trade from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Chicago time.⁹

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Act”) and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to the Exchange and, in particular, the requirements of Section 6(b) of the Act.¹⁰ Specifically, the Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with the Section 6(b)(5)¹¹ requirements that the rules of an exchange be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in regulating, clearing, settling, processing information with respect to, and facilitating transactions in securities, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. Additionally, the Exchange believes the

⁸ While the stocks may continue to trade in an aftermarket trading session on the listing exchanges, there is less liquidity in aftermarket trading, which generally leads to wider spreads and more volatile pricing.

⁹ See Rule 24.6(b) (for example, options on the S&P transportation, retail, health care, banking, insurance, and chemical indices, and the Cboe PowerPacks SM bank, biotechnology, gold, internet, iron & steel, oil, oil services, pharmaceuticals, retail, semiconductor, technology, and telecom indices).

¹⁰ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b).

¹¹ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(5).

proposed rule change is consistent with the Section 6(b)(5)¹² requirement that the rules of an exchange not be designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers.

In particular, closing trading in the Select Sector Index options at the same time the stocks end regular trading will ensure investors have access to robust pricing of the underlying stock components they use to price the options, which protects investors by reducing their price risk. Various other index options, including narrow-based index options, may trade from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Chicago time.¹³

B. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Burden on Competition

Cboe Options does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. All market participants will be able to trade options on the Sector Indexes during the same trading hours. Various other index options, including narrow-based index options, may trade from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Chicago time.¹⁴ The Exchange believes the proposed rule change will promote competition, as it brings the trading hours for Sector Index options in line with competitive products trading on other exchanges. Additionally, Sector Index options trade exclusively on Cboe Options. To the extent that the proposed changes make Cboe Options a more attractive marketplace for market participants at other exchanges, such market participants are welcome to become Cboe Options market participants.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

The Exchange neither solicited nor received comments on the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) Significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to Section

19(b)(3)(A)(iii) of the Act¹⁵ and subparagraph (f)(6) Rule 19b–4 thereunder.¹⁶

A proposed rule change filed under Rule 19b–4(f)(6)¹⁷ normally does not become operative for 30 days after the date of filing. However, Rule 19b–4(f)(6)(iii)¹⁸ permits the Commission to designate a shorter time if such action is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. The Exchange has requested that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay to permit the proposed rule change to be operative at the time the Exchange begins listing Sector Index options for trading. The Commission believes that waiver of the 30-day operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest because the proposal to add ten new S&P Select Sector Index options to the existing list of similar index options, including narrow-based index options, that trade until 3:00 p.m. Chicago time does not raise any new or novel issues. Therefore, the Commission hereby waives the 30-day operative delay and designates the proposed rule change operative upon filing.¹⁹

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission will institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

¹⁵ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A).

¹⁶ 17 CFR 240.19b–4(f)(6). In addition, Rule 19b–4(f)(6)(iii) requires the Exchange to give the Commission written notice of the Exchange’s intent to file the proposed rule change, along with a brief description and text of the proposed rule change, at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission. The Exchange has satisfied this requirement.

¹⁷ 17 CFR 240.19b–4(f)(6).

¹⁸ 17 CFR 240.19b–4(f)(6)(iii).

¹⁹ For purposes only of waiving the 30-day operative delay, the Commission also has considered the proposed rule’s impact on efficiency, competition, and capital formation. See 15 U.S.C. 78c(f).
