

authorization to work in the United States. USCIS also collects biometric information from EAD applicants to verify the applicant's identity, check or update their background information, and produce the EAD card.

USCIS is submitting this request in order for qualifying abused nonimmigrant spouses to seek safety and financial stability from their abuser.

The Form I-765V, Application for Employment Authorization for Abused Nonimmigrant Spouse, permits battered spouses of nonimmigrants admitted under subparagraph (A), (E)(iii), (G), or (H) of section 101(a)(15) of the Act to apply for employment authorization based on section 106 of the INA.

To be eligible for employment authorization issued under INA section 106, credible evidence must be submitted demonstrating that the applicant:

1. Is married to a qualifying principal nonimmigrant spouse, or was married to a qualifying principal nonimmigrant spouse and

a. The spouse died within two years of filing the EAD application,

b. The spouse lost qualifying nonimmigrant status due to an incident of domestic violence, or

c. The marriage to the principal spouse was terminated within the two years prior to filing for the INA section 106 employment authorization, and there is a connection between the termination of the marriage and the battery or extreme cruelty;

2. Was last admitted as a nonimmigrant under INA section 101(a)(15)(A), (E)(iii), (G), or (H);

3. Was battered or has been subjected to extreme cruelty, or whose child was battered or subjected to extreme cruelty, perpetrated by the principal nonimmigrant spouse during the marriage and after admission as a nonimmigrant under INA section 101(a)(15)(A), (E)(iii), (G), or (H); and

4. Currently resides in the United States.

Form I-765V will provide the information needed to determine eligibility for employment authorization based on INA section 106. If the applicant remarries prior to adjudication of the application, he or she is ineligible for initial issuance or renewal of employment authorization under INA section 106.

In addition, if an applicant for employment authorization is filing based on a claim that his or her child was battered or subjected to extreme cruelty, USCIS requires submission of evidence establishing the applicant's parental relationship with the abused child.

Confidentiality provisions of Title 8, United States Code, section 1367 extend to applicants for employment authorization under INA section 106.
