in general, to protect investors and the public interest.\footnote{15} The proposed rule change would make a number of clarifying and conforming changes to OCC’s Margin Policy and Margins Methodology related to enhancements to OCC’s margin methodology that were recently approved by the Commission.\footnote{16}

Specifically, the proposed rule change is designed to improve OCC’s policy and methodology documentation by clarifying certain implementation details of the methodology changes in the Initial Filings, ensuring that OCC’s Margin Policy is properly aligned with the methodology enhancements upon their implementation, and clarifying the implementation date for these changes. OCC believes that the proposed rule change is therefore designed, in general, to protect investors and the public interest in accordance with Section 17A(b)(3)(F) of the Act.\footnote{17}

(B) Clearing Agency’s Statement on Burden on Competition

Section 17A(b)(3)(I) of the Act \footnote{18} requires that the rules of a clearing agency not impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. OCC does not believe that the proposed rule change would have any impact or impose a burden on competition. The proposed rule change is intended to make clarifying and conforming changes to OCC’s Margin Policy and Margins Methodology in connection with the implementation of a proposed rule change that was previously approved by the Commission. Accordingly, OCC does not believe that the proposed rule change would have any impact or impose a burden on competition.

(C) Clearing Agency’s Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

Written comments on the proposed rule change were not and are not intended to be solicited with respect to the proposed rule change and none have been received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act \footnote{19} and Rule 19b–4(f)(1) \footnote{20} thereunder because it constitutes a stated policy, practice, or interpretation with respect to the meaning, administration, or enforcement of an existing rule.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.\footnote{21}

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

- Electronic Comments
  - Use the Commission’s internet comment form (http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml); or
  - Send an email to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include File Number SR–OCC–2018–011 on the subject line.

- Paper Comments
  - Send paper comments in triplicate to Brent J. Fields, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street NE, Washington, DC 20549–1000. All submissions should refer to File Number SR–OCC–2018–011.
  - The proposed rule change is designed to improve OCC’s policy and methodology documentation by clarifying certain implementation details of the methodology changes in the Initial Filings, ensuring that OCC’s Margin Policy is properly aligned with the methodology enhancements upon their implementation, and clarifying the implementation date for these changes. OCC believes that the proposed rule change is therefore designed, in general, to protect investors and the public interest in accordance with Section 17A(b)(3)(F) of the Act. OCC believes that the proposed rule change does not believe that the proposed rule change does not impose any burden on competition. The proposed rule change therefore is designed, in general, to protect investors and the public interest in accordance with Section 17A(b)(3)(F) of the Act.

All comments received will be posted without change. Persons submitting comments are cautioned that we do not redact or edit personal identifying information from comment submissions. You should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly.

All submissions should refer to File Number SR–OCC–2018–011 and should be submitted on or before September 4, 2018.

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.\footnote{22}

Eduardo A. Aleman,
Assistant Secretary.
