

Congress intended to preclude: the adoption of standards that would achieve higher efficiency by eliminating currently available “performance characteristics” (including “features”) that are important to many purchasers.

Conclusion

DOE’s rulemaking proceedings concerning standards for residential furnaces and commercial water heaters have been fatally undermined by their failure to recognize that EPCA precludes the adoption of standards that would effectively eliminate fuel gas products that do not use condensing combustion technology. Petitioners believe that prompt action to correct that failure is both warranted and necessary to facilitate any reasonably efficient path forward in those rulemaking proceedings. Accordingly, Petitioners respectfully request that DOE—after soliciting and appropriately considering public comment on this Petition—promptly take final action by:

- Issuing an interpretive rule confirming that energy conservation standards limiting the market for natural gas and/or propane gas furnaces or water heaters to products using condensing combustion technology would result in the unavailability of “performance characteristics” within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. §§ 6295(0)(4) and 6313(a)(6)(B)(iii)(II), and
- Withdrawing its proposed standards for residential furnaces and commercial water heaters on the grounds of appropriate written findings as specified by 42 U.S.C. §§ 6295(0)(4) and 6313(a)(6)(B)(iii)(II), respectively.

Further deliberation in the two pending rulemaking proceedings can then occur, with appropriate consideration—as EPCA requires—of any need for separate standards (and separate product classes) for products that use condensing combustion technology and those that do not.<sup>26</sup> Respectfully submitted,

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

“The Standards for the Growing, Harvesting, Packing, and Holding of Produce for Human Consumption” rule (the produce safety rule, published in the Federal Register of November 27, 2015 (80 FR 74354) (<https://www.fda.gov/fsma>)) establishes science-based minimum standards for the safe growing, harvesting, packing, and holding of fruits and vegetables grown for human consumption. The rule is part of the Agency’s ongoing efforts to implement the FDA Food Safety Modernization Act (FSMA; Pub. L. 111-353). FSMA also requires FDA to issue guidance for the safe production and harvesting of fresh produce (section 419(e)(1) of the FD&C Act (21 U.S.C. 350h(e)(1))) and to also conduct at least three public meetings in diverse geographical areas of the United States as part of an effort to conduct education and outreach regarding the guidance for interested stakeholders (section 419(e)(2) of the FD&C Act).

In the Federal Register of October 22, 2018 (83 FR 53196), we announced the availability of the “Standards for the Growing, Harvesting, Packing, and Holding of Produce for Human Consumption; Draft Guidance for Industry” (<https://www.fda.gov/downloads/Food/GuidanceRegulation/GuidanceDocumentsRegulatoryInformation/UCM623178.pdf>). The draft guidance provides information on and recommendations for compliance with the requirements of the produce safety rule, which produce and farms are covered by the rule, and whether certain produce or farms may be eligible for exemptions.

FDA is announcing a series of public meetings entitled “Standards for the Growing, Harvesting, Packing, and Holding of Produce for Human Consumption; Draft Guidance for Industry” so that stakeholders can better evaluate and comment on the draft guidance. These meetings will be held during the formal comment period on the draft guidance.<sup>1</sup> All four public meetings will cover the same agenda items and are intended to facilitate and support the public’s evaluation and commenting process.

While oral presentations<sup>2</sup> from specific individuals and organizations will be necessarily limited due to time constraints during the public meetings, stakeholders may submit electronic or written comments discussing any issues of concern to the administrative record (the docket) for the draft guidance (Docket No. FDA-2018-D-3631).

II. Purpose and Format of the Public Meetings

The purpose of the public meetings is to provide information and facilitate comment so that stakeholders can better evaluate and provide input on the draft guidance. We invite interested parties to provide information and offer comments related to the produce safety rule draft guidance. During the public meetings we will present information on the various chapters of the draft guidance: General provisions; personnel qualifications and training; health and hygiene; biological soil amendments of animal origin; domesticated and wild animals; growing, harvesting, packing, and holding activities on a farm; equipment, tools, buildings, and sanitation; records; and variances.<sup>3</sup> Stakeholder panels will provide discussion on the various issues. There will be an opportunity for questions, as well as an opportunity for open public comment.

III. How To Participate in the Public Meetings

There will be a total of four public meetings held in diverse geographical areas of the United States to provide persons in different regions an opportunity to comment on the draft guidance.

Table 1 provides information on participation in the public meetings.

<sup>2</sup> Requests to make oral presentations must be made in advance. Please see table 1 for deadlines to request making an oral presentation for each meeting.

<sup>3</sup> We have proposed to extend the compliance dates related to the requirements of subpart E of the produce safety rule, which addresses agricultural water, and have provided enforcement discretion until the finalization of that rulemaking (82 FR 42963, 42965; September 13, 2017). Accordingly, the draft guidance does not contain any recommendations related to subpart E, and agricultural water is not on the agenda for these public meetings. Also not on the agenda for these public meetings is the draft guidance issued in January 2017 entitled “Compliance with and Recommendations for Implementation of the Standards for the Growing, Harvesting, Packing, and Holding of Produce for Human Consumption for Sprout Operations.”

<sup>1</sup> Under FDA’s Good Guidance Practices regulation, anyone may comment on an FDA guidance document at any time (see 21 CFR 10.115(g)(5)).

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Notification of petition.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA or we) is announcing that we have filed a petition, submitted by Bonamar Corp., proposing that we amend our food additive regulations to provide for the safe use of sources of ionizing radiation to control food-borne pathogens in finfish and flatfish.

DATES: The food additive petition was filed on September 27, 2018.

ADDRESSES: For access to the docket to read background documents or comments received, go to <https://www.regulations.gov> and insert the docket number found in brackets in the heading of this document into the “Search” box and follow the prompts, and/or go to the Dockets Management Staff, 5630 Fishers Lane, Rm. 1061, Rockville, MD 20852.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (section 409(b)(5) (21 U.S.C. 348(b)(5))), we are giving notice that we have filed a food additive petition (FAP 8M4822), submitted by Bonamar Corp., c/o Robert P. Smith, Department of Biological Sciences, Nova Southeastern University, 3301 College Ave., Fort Lauderdale, FL 33314. The petition proposes to amend the food additive regulations in § 179.26 (21 CFR 179.26) Ionizing radiation for the treatment of food to provide for the safe use of sources of ionizing radiation to control food-borne pathogens in: (1) Chilled or frozen raw finfish and flatfish; and (2) frozen, raw vacuum-packed finfish and flatfish.

The petitioner has claimed that this action is categorically excluded from the need to prepare an environmental assessment or an environmental impact statement under 21 CFR 25.32(j), because the petition requests approval for a source of irradiation which is a piece of permanent equipment intended for repeated use. In addition, the petitioner has stated that, to the petitioner’s knowledge, no extraordinary circumstances exist. If FDA determines a categorical exclusion applies, neither an environmental assessment nor an environmental impact statement is required. If FDA determines a categorical exclusion does not apply, we will request an environmental assessment and make it available for public inspection.
