

for firms to make and test the systems changes necessary to comply with SR-FINRA-2013-050 will benefit all interested parties.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

A copy of the request for a delay from FIF is attached to the filing submitted by the Exchange but not attached to the published notice of this filing. In response to FIF's request, as discussed above, FINRA is proposing to delay implementation of the amendments to the ADF and TRF rules approved under SR-FINRA-2013-050 to July 13, 2015. FINRA believes that the revised implementation date will provide members additional time to make the necessary system changes while balancing the need to implement the amendments without undue delay.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) Significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act¹⁹ and subparagraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.²⁰

A proposed rule change filed under Rule 19b-4(f)(6) normally does not become operative for 30 days after the date of filing.²¹ However, Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii) permits the Commission to designate a shorter time if such action is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest.²² FINRA has requested that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay so that FINRA can immediately delay the implementation dates, as provided in this proposal.

The Commission believes that the waiver of the 30-day operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest as it will allow FINRA to extend the implementation dates of certain changes approved pursuant to SR-FINRA-2013-050 in a timely manner. Therefore, the Commission designates the proposal operative upon filing.²³

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is: (i) Necessary or appropriate in the public interest; (ii) for the protection of investors; or (iii) otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.²⁴ If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved.²⁵

IV. Solicitation of Comments

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 500-1]

In the Matter of Jet Neko, Inc., Order of Suspension of Trading

April 28, 2015.

It appears to the Securities and Exchange Commission that there is a lack of current and accurate information concerning the securities of Jet Neko, Inc. (CIK No. 1541371), a void Delaware corporation with its principal place of business listed as Miyazaki, Japan with stock quoted on OTC Link (previously, "Pink Sheets") operated by OTC Markets Group, Inc. ("OTC Link") under the ticker symbol NEKO, because it has not filed any periodic reports since it filed a Form 10 registration statement on February 9, 2012. On February 5, 2015, a delinquency letter was sent by the Division of Corporation Finance to Jet Neko, Inc. requesting compliance with their periodic filing obligations, but Jet Neko, Inc. did not receive the delinquency letter due to its failure to maintain a valid address on file with the Commission as required by Commission rules (Rule 301 of Regulation S-T, 17 CFR 232.301 and Section 5.4 of EDGAR Filer Manual).

The Commission is of the opinion that the public interest and the protection of investors require a suspension of trading in the securities of Jet Neko, Inc.

Therefore, it is ordered, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that trading in the

[Securities Act of 1933 Release No. 9760/ April 24, 2015; Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Release No. 74810/April 24, 2015]

Order Regarding Review of FASB Accounting Support Fee For 2015 Under Section 109 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the “Act”) provides that the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) may recognize, as generally accepted for purposes of the securities laws, any accounting principles established by a standard setting body that meets certain criteria. Consequently, Section 109 of the Act provides that all of the budget of such a standard setting body shall be payable from an annual accounting support fee assessed and collected against each issuer, as may be necessary or appropriate to pay for the budget and provide for the expenses of the standard setting body, and to provide for an independent, stable source of funding, subject to review by the Commission. Under Section 109(f) of the Act, the amount of fees collected for a fiscal year shall not exceed the “recoverable budget expenses” of the standard setting body. Section 109(h) amends Section 13(b)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to require issuers to pay the allocable share of a reasonable annual accounting support fee or fees, determined in accordance with Section 109 of the Act.

On April 25, 2003, the Commission issued a policy statement concluding that the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) and its parent organization, the Financial Accounting Foundation (“FAF”), satisfied the criteria for an accounting standard-setting body under the Act, and recognizing the FASB’s financial accounting and reporting standards as “generally accepted” under Section 108 of the Act.¹ As a consequence of that recognition, the Commission undertook a review of the FASB’s accounting support fee for calendar year 2015. In connection with its review, the Commission also reviewed the budget for the FAF and the FASB for calendar year 2015.

Section 109 of the Act also provides that the standard setting body can have additional sources of revenue for its activities, such as earnings from sales of publications, provided that each additional source of revenue shall not jeopardize, in the judgment of the Commission, the actual or perceived independence of the standard setter. In this regard, the Commission also considered the interrelation of the operating budgets of the FAF, the FASB, and the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (“GASB”), the FASB’s sister organization, which sets accounting standards used by state and local government entities. The Commission has been advised by the FAF that neither the FAF, the FASB, nor the GASB accept contributions from the accounting profession.

The Commission understands that the Office of Management and Budget (“OMB”) has determined the FASB’s spending of the 2015 accounting support fee is sequestrable under the Budget Control Act of 2011.² So long as sequestration is applicable, we anticipate that the FAF will work with the Commission and Commission staff as appropriate regarding its implementation of sequestration.

After its review, the Commission determined that the 2015 annual accounting support fee for the FASB is consistent with Section 109 of the Act. Accordingly,

It is ordered, pursuant to Section 109 of the Act, that the FASB may act in accordance with this determination of the Commission.

By the Commission.

Secretary.
