SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title of Collection: Generic Information Collection Plan for Information on Compliance Costs and Other Effects of Regulations.

OMB Control Number: 3170–0032.

Type of Review: Extension without change of an existing information collection.

Affected Public: Private Sector.

Estimated Number of Annual Respondents: 8,150.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 9,008.

Abstract: The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act requires or authorizes the Consumer Financial Projection Bureau to implement new consumer protections in certain sectors of financial markets, including the mortgage and remittance industries. The information collected is required in order to effectively incorporate information from providers concerning compliance costs and other effects of regulations into potential rulemakings.

Request for Comments: The Bureau issued a 60-day Federal Register notice on October 29, 2015, (80 FR 66495). Comments were solicited and continue to be invited on: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Bureau, including whether the information will have practical utility; (b) The accuracy of the Bureau's estimate of the burden of the collection of information, including the validity of the methods and the assumptions used; (c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and/or included in the request for OMB approval. All comments will become a matter of public record.

Dated: January 12, 2016.

Darrin A. King,

Paperwork Reduction Act Officer, Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection.
