Petition for Exemption

Docket No.: FAA-2018-0742.

Petitioner: Aero-Flite, Inc.

Section(s) of 14 CFR Affected: 91.213.

Description of Relief Sought: Aero-Flite, Inc. (Aero-Flite) is seeking exemption for relief from the requirement in § 91.213 that no person may take off an aircraft with inoperative instruments or equipment installed unless, among other things, an approved Minimum Equipment List (MEL) exists for that aircraft. Aero-Flite notes that an MEL does not exist for the CL-415 aircraft that it operations. As such, Aero-Flite cannot operate such aircraft unless all instruments and equipment are operative at all times. Under the relief requested, Aero-Flite would conduct a risk assessment to determine if an inoperative instrument or equipment could be deferred and operations continued.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Financial Crimes Enforcement Network

Agency Information Collection Activities; Proposed Renewal; Comment Request; Renewal Without Change of Customer Identification Programs for Brokers or Dealers in Securities and Mutual Funds

AGENCY: Financial Crimes Enforcement Network ("FinCEN"), U.S. Department of the Treasury.

ACTION: Notice and request for comments.

SUMMARY: FinCEN invites comment on a proposed renewal, without change, to information collections found in regulations requiring brokers or dealers in securities and mutual funds to develop and implement customer identification programs designed to allow the covered financial institution to form a reasonable belief that it knows the true identity of each customer. This request for comment is being made pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act ("PRA") of 1995.

DATES: Written comments are welcome and must be received on or before November 13, 2018.

ADDRESSES: Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

- Federal E-rulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov>. Follow the instructions for submitting comments. Refer to Docket Number FINCEN-2018-0015 and the Office of Management and Budget ("OMB") control number of the information collection(s) you wish to comment on (OMB control numbers 1506-0033 and/or 1506-0034).

- Mail: Policy Division, Financial Crimes Enforcement Network, P.O. Box 39, Vienna, VA 22183. Refer to Docket Number FINCEN-2018-0015 and the OMB control number of the information collection(s) you wish to comment on (OMB control numbers 1506-0033 and/or 1506-0034).

Please submit comments by one method only. Comments will also be incorporated to FinCEN's retrospective regulatory review process, as mandated by E.O. 12866 and 13563. All comments submitted in response to this notice will become a matter of public record. Therefore, you should submit only information that you wish to make publicly available.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: The FinCEN Resource Center at 800-767-2825 or electronically at frc@fincen.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Bank Secrecy Act ("BSA"), Titles I and II of Public Law 91-508, as amended, codified at 12 U.S.C. 1829(b), 12 U.S.C. 1951-1959, and 31 U.S.C. 5311-5314 and 5316-5332, authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury, among other things, to require financial institutions to keep records and file reports that are determined to have a high degree of usefulness in criminal, tax, and regulatory matters or in the conduct of intelligence or counter-intelligence activities to protect against international terrorism, and to implement counter-money laundering programs and compliance procedures.¹ Title III of the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001, Public Law 107-56, included certain amendments to the anti-money laundering provisions of Title II of the BSA, 31 U.S.C. 5311 et seq., which are intended to aid in the prevention, detection, and prosecution of international money laundering and terrorist financing.

Regulations implementing Title II of the BSA appear at 31 CFR chapter X. The authority of the Secretary of the Treasury to administer Title II of the BSA has been delegated to the Director of FinCEN. The information collected and retained under the regulation addressed in this notice assist Federal, state, and local law enforcement as well as regulatory authorities in the identification, investigation and prosecution of money laundering and other matters.

Section 5318(l) of the BSA requires FinCEN to issue regulations prescribing customer identification programs for financial institutions. Those regulations, at a minimum, must require financial institutions implement reasonable procedures for (1) verifying the identity of any person seeking to open an account, to the extent reasonable and practicable; (2) maintaining records of the information used to verify the person's identity, including name, address, and other identifying information; and (3) determining whether the person appears on any lists of known or suspected terrorists or terrorist organizations provided to the financial institution by any government agency. The regulations are to take into consideration the various types of accounts maintained by various types of financial institutions, the various methods of opening accounts, and the various types of identifying information available. Regulations implementing section 5318(l) with respect to brokers or dealers in securities and mutual funds are found at 31 CFR 1023.220 and 1024.220, respectively.

In accordance with the requirements of the PRA and its implementing regulations, the following information is presented concerning the information collection below.

as regulatory authorities in the identification, investigation and prosecution of money laundering and other matters.

In accordance with the requirements of the PRA and its implementing regulations, the following information is presented concerning the information collection below.

Title: Report of Transportation of Currency or Monetary Instruments. (31 CFR 1010.340.)

OMB Control Number: 1506-0014.

Form Number: FinCEN Form 105, Report of International Transportation of Currency or Monetary Instruments. A copy of the form may be obtained from the FinCEN website at https://www.fincen.gov/sites/default/files/shared/fin105_cmir.pdf.

Abstract: Pursuant to the BSA, the requirement of 31 U.S.C. 5316(a) has been implemented through a regulation promulgated at 31 CFR 1010.340 and through the instructions for the CMIR as follows:

(1) Each person who physically transports, mails, or ships, or causes to be physically transported, mailed, or shipped currency or other monetary instruments in an aggregate amount exceeding $10,000 at one time from the United States to any place outside the United States or into the United States from any place outside the United States, and

(2) Each person who receives in the United States currency or other monetary instruments in an aggregate amount exceeding $10,000 at one time which have been transported, mailed, or shipped to the person from any place outside the United States.

A transfer of funds through normal banking procedures, which does not involve the physical transportation of currency or monetary instruments, is not required to be reported on the CMIR.

Information collected on the CMIR is made available, in accordance with strict safeguards, to appropriate criminal law enforcement and regulatory personnel in the official performance of their duties. The information collected is of use in investigations involving international and domestic money laundering, tax evasion, fraud, and other financial crimes.

Current Actions: Renewal without change to the existing regulations.

Type of Review: Renewal without change of a currently approved information collection.

Affected Public: Individuals, business or other for-profit institutions, and not-for-profit institutions.

Frequency: As required.
