B. Solicitation of Public Comment

This notice is soliciting comments from members of the public and affected parties concerning the collection of information described in Section A on the following:

(1) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) The accuracy of the agency’s estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information;

(3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;

(4) Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond; including through the use of appropriate automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses or revising the physical documentations requirements for electronically filed or issued response;

(5) Ways to reflect changes to the Security Instrument (HUD 94000M), which also serves as the Security Agreement;

(6) Ways to reflect bonds, master lease, or condominium structures in multifamily rental projects;

(7) Ways to update the instructions for assigning non-traditional loan documents (including LEAN-related documents) and acceptable recording/assignment criteria; and

(8) Ways to update the instructions to accommodate portfolio structures and other changes in FHA’s Healthcare Programs.

HUD encourages interested parties to submit comment in response to these questions.

Authority: 12 U.S.C. 1701z-1 Research and Demonstrations.

Dated: November 20, 2018.

Ariel Pereira,

Associate General Counsel for Legislation & Regulations.
