Non-Oriented Electrical Steel From the Republic of Korea, Certain Corrosion-Resistant Steel Products From the Republic of Korea, Certain Cold-Rolled Steel Flat Products From the Republic of Korea, Certain Hot-Rolled Steel Flat Products From the Republic of Korea, Certain Carbon and Alloy Steel Cut-to-Length Plate From the Republic of Korea, and Carbon and Alloy Steel Wire Rod From the Republic of Korea: Notice of Initiation and Preliminary Results of Antidumping Duty Changed Circumstances Review

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: In response to a request for a changed circumstances review (CCR), the U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) is initiating a CCR of the antidumping duty (AD) orders on non-oriented electrical steel, certain corrosion-resistant steel products, certain cold-rolled steel flat products, certain hot-rolled steel flat products, certain carbon and alloy steel cut-to-length plate, and carbon and alloy steel wire rod from the Republic of Korea (Korea). Additionally, Commerce preliminarily determines that POSCO, following a corporate organizational change in March 2022 (hereinafter, POSCO(II)), is the successor-in-interest to the pre-reorganization POSCO entity (hereinafter, POSCO(I)). As such, POSCO(II) is entitled to POSCO(I)'s AD cash deposit rates with respect to entries of subject merchandise in each of the above-referenced proceedings. Interested parties are invited to comment on these preliminary results.

DATES: Applicable July 13, 2022.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Christopher Maciuba, AD/CVD Operations, Office V, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-0413.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On May 23 and 24, 2022, POSCO(II) notified Commerce of a corporate reorganization and requested that, if necessary, Commerce initiate CCRs under the relevant AD proceedings to determine that it is the successor-in-interest to POSCO(I) for purposes of determining AD cash deposits.¹ In this request, POSCO(II) stated that, on December 10, 2021, the board of directors of POSCO(I) initially approved a corporate reorganization whereby POSCO(I) would be registered as POSCO Holdings, and POSCO(I)'s production and sales operations for its steel business would be organized under a new business unit, POSCO(II), which would be a subsidiary of POSCO

¹ See POSCO's Letters, "Notification of Corporate Reorganization and Request for Changed Circumstances Review, If Deemed Necessary: Vertical Spinoff of POSCO," dated May 23, 2022; and "Notification of Corporate Reorganization and Request for Changed Circumstances Review, If Deemed Necessary: Vertical Spinoff of POSCO," dated May 24, 2022 (collectively, POSCO CCR Request); see also POSCO's Letter, "Clarification of Notification of Corporate Reorganization and Request for Changed Circumstances Review, If Deemed Necessary," dated May 25, 2022.

Holdings.² Subsequently, POSCO Holdings and POSCO(II) were registered on March 2, 2022.³

POSCO(II) states that, as a result of the reorganization, the operations, assets, and liabilities associated with POSCO(I)'s steel business are now organized under POSCO(II). Further, POSCO Holdings became the parent company to POSCO(II) and retains all of the other subsidiaries of POSCO(I) unrelated to the production and sale of steel products.⁴ With the reorganization, on March 2, 2022, POSCO(II) became a private company wholly owned by POSCO Holdings, and POSCO Holdings is the publicly owned stock company (i.e., the function that POSCO(I) had previously served).

Scope of the Orders

The merchandise covered by the orders is non-oriented electrical steel, certain corrosion-resistant steel products, certain cold-rolled steel flat products, certain hot-rolled steel flat products, certain carbon and alloy steel cut-to-length plate, and carbon and alloy steel wire rod from Korea. For a complete description of the scope of each of the respective orders, see the Preliminary Decision Memorandum.⁵

Initiation of Changed Circumstances Review

Pursuant to section 751(b)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), and 19 CFR 351.216 and 351.221(c)(3), Commerce will conduct a CCR of an order upon receipt of information concerning, or a request from an interested party for a review of, an order which shows changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review of the order. Commerce finds that the information submitted by POSCO(II) demonstrates changed circumstances sufficient to warrant such a review. Therefore, in accordance with section 751(b)(1) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216(d), Commerce is initiating CCRs based on the information contained in POSCO(II)'s request that Commerce determine POSCO(II) is the successor-in-interest to POSCO(I) for purposes of the orders.⁶

Further, 19 CFR 351.221(c)(3)(ii) permits Commerce to combine the notice of initiation of a CCR and the notice of preliminary results of a CCR if Commerce concludes that expedited action is warranted. In this instance, because the record contains information necessary to make a preliminary finding, we find that expedited action is warranted and have combined the notice of initiation and the notice of preliminary results.

Methodology

In determining whether one company is the successor to another, Commerce generally considers a company to be the successor-in-interest for AD cash deposit purposes if the operations of the successor are not materially dissimilar from those of its predecessor.⁷ In making this determination, Commerce examines a number of factors including, but not limited to, changes in: (1) Management; (2) production facilities; (3) suppliers; and (4) customer base.⁸ While no one or several of these factors will necessarily provide a dispositive indication of succession, if the evidence demonstrates that, with respect to the production and sale of the subject merchandise, the new company operates as the same business entity as the prior company, Commerce will assign the new company the cash deposit rate of its predecessor.⁹

Commerce's analysis of the information submitted by POSCO(II) is detailed in the Preliminary Decision Memorandum. A list of the topics discussed in the Preliminary Decision Memorandum is included as an appendix to this notice. The Preliminary Decision Memorandum is a public document and is made available to the public via Enforcement and Compliance's Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System (ACCESS). ACCESS is available to registered users at <https://access.trade.gov>. In addition, a complete version of the Preliminary Decision Memorandum is available at <https://access.trade.gov/public/FRNoticesListLayout.aspx>.

Preliminary Results of the Changed Circumstances Reviews

In its CCR Request, POSCO(II) provided evidence demonstrating that its operations are not materially dissimilar from those of POSCO(I). Specifically, POSCO(II) is managed and operated by many of the same managers as POSCO(II), either directly as board members or members of POSCO(II)'s management team, or indirectly as members of POSCO Holdings' management team. Further, POSCO(II) has not added, or discontinued use of, steel production facilities as a result of the change in ownership and management structure. Finally, there have been no significant changes to the company's suppliers and customer base. Based on the foregoing, which is explained in greater detail in the Preliminary Decision Memorandum, we preliminarily determine that POSCO(II) is the successor-in-interest to POSCO(I) and, as such, that POSCO(II) is entitled to POSCO(I)'s AD cash deposit rate with respect to entries of subject merchandise.

In addition, a complete version of the Issues and Decision Memorandum can be accessed directly at <https://access.trade.gov/public/FRNoticesListLayout.aspx>.

Scope of the Order³

The merchandise covered by this Order is fine denier polyester staple fiber. For a complete description of the scope of this order, see the Issues and Decision Memorandum.

Analysis of Comments Received and Changes Since the Preliminary Results

All issues raised in the case brief submitted by Auriga Polymers, Inc., Fiber Industries LLC, and Nan Ya Plastics Corporation, America are addressed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum. A list of the issues discussed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum is included as the appendix to this notice. Based on our analysis of the comments received and record information, we revised the countervailing duty (CVD) subsidy rates calculated for Reliance. These changes are explained in the Issues and Decision Memorandum.

Methodology

Commerce conducted this administrative review in accordance with section 751(a)(1)(A) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act). For each of the subsidy programs found to be countervailable, we find that there is a subsidy, i.e., a government-provided financial contribution that gives rise to a benefit to the recipient, and that the subsidy is specific.⁴ For a description of the methodology underlying Commerce's conclusions, see the Issues and Decision Memorandum.

Final Results of Review

In accordance with section 751(a)(1) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.221(b)(5), we find the net countervailable subsidy rate

Order on Fine Denier Polyester Staple Fiber from India," dated concurrently with, and hereby adopted by, this notice (Issues and Decision Memorandum).
