POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

Investigative Records are maintained in electronic and paper format. Electronic records are stored in computerized databases. Paper records and other media (photographs, audio recording, CDs, etc.) are stored in locked containers in a secured restricted area.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS:

The paper or physical case records are retrieved by case number. Electronic records may be retrieved by case number, case name, subject, cross referenced item key word search, batch retrieval applications, or by any available field or metadata element recorded in the system.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF RECORDS:

Investigative records are retained, retired and destroyed in accordance with the Peace Corps' published record disposition schedule that is approved by the National Archives and Records Administration.

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

The Peace Corps safeguards records in this system in accordance with applicable laws, rules, and policies to protect personally identifiable information against unauthorized access or disclosure. The Peace Corps has imposed strict controls to minimize such risks. Administrative safeguards include but not limited to: access to the information in this system is limited to authorized personnel with official duties requiring access, and whose roles have been authorized with such access permissions. All such individuals receive the appropriate privacy and cybersecurity training on an annual basis.

The physical controls in place include the servers storing electronic data are located offsite in a locked facility with access limited to authorized personnel. The servers are maintained in accordance with a government contract that requires adherence to applicable laws, rules, and policies on protecting individual privacy. Computerized records are safeguarded in a secured environment. Security protocols meet the promulgating guidance as established by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Security Standards from Access Control to Data Encryption and Security Assessment and Authorization. The paper or other physical records are kept in limited access areas during duty hours and in locked file cabinets and/or locked offices at all other times.

The technical controls in place include multiple firewalls, system access, encrypted data at rest, encrypted data in motion, periodic vulnerability scans to ensure security compliance, and security access logs. Security complies with applicable Federal Information Processing Standards (FIPS) issued by NIST. Access is restricted to specific authorized Peace Corps individuals who have internet access through work computers using a Personally Identity Verification (PIV). Individual users can only access records with the proper pre-approved accreditation.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Records in this system are exempt from the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974 that permit access, correction, and notification to the extent permitted under the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2), (k)(2), and 22 CFR 308.14. At the Inspector General's discretion, individual requests for access and correction may be granted if it is determined that the exercise of these rights will not interfere with an interest that the exemption is intended to protect. The exemption from access is limited in some instances by law to information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source. Individuals seeking access to their records should follow the procedures in 22 CFR part 308. Individuals should address written inquiries to the OIG FOIA Officer at foia@peacecorpsioig.gov. Complete Peace Corps Privacy Act procedures are set out in 22 CFR part 308. Requesters will be required to provide adequate identification. Additional identification may be required in some instances. Requests for correction or amendment must identify the record to be changed and the corrective action sought.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

Requests must follow the "Records Access Procedures," above. Clearly and concisely state what information is being contested, the reasons for contesting it, and the proposed amendment to the information sought.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES:

See "Record Access Procedures."
