

reports multiplied by 4 hours for foreign carriers).

Frequency: One report per respondent for each tarmac delay.

3. Requirement that certain U.S. and foreign air carriers adopt a Customer Service Plan and retain for two years the results of its annual self-audit of its compliance with its Customer Service Plan. (14 CFR 259.2 and 259.5)

Title: Adopting a Customer Service Plan and Retaining Self-audit of Customer Service Plan.

Respondents: U.S. carriers that operate scheduled passenger service using any aircraft with a designed seating capacity of 30 or more seats, and foreign air carriers that operate scheduled passenger service to and from the United States using any aircraft with a designed seating capacity of 30 or more seats.

Number of Respondents: 44 U.S. air carriers and 112 foreign air carriers.

Estimated Annual Burden on Respondents: 15 minutes per year for each respondent. The estimate was calculated by multiplying the estimated time for carriers to maintain an updated Customer Service Plan and to retain a copy of the carrier's self-audit of its compliance with its Customer Service Plan by the number of audits per carrier in a given year (1). The initial costs of adopting a Customer Service Plan are not included in this estimate as most covered carriers initially adopted such plans when the requirement was promulgated in 2009 (for U.S. carriers) and 2011 (for foreign carriers).

Estimated Total Annual Burden: A maximum of 39 hours (2,340 minutes) for all respondents. The estimate was calculated by multiplying the time in a given year for each carrier to maintain an updated Customer Service Plan and to retain a copy of its self-audit of its compliance with its Customer Service Plan (15 minutes) by the total number of covered carriers (156 carriers).

Frequency: One information set to maintain and retain per year for each respondent.

4. Requirement that each large U.S. carrier display on its website, at a point before the consumer selects a flight for purchase, the following information for each listed flight regarding its on-time performance during the last reported month: The percentage of arrivals that were on time (within 15 minutes of scheduled arrival time), the percentage of arrivals that were more than 30 minutes late (with special highlighting if the flight was more than 30 minutes late more than 50 percent of the time), and the percentage of flight cancellations if the flight is cancelled more than 5% of the time. In addition, the requirement that a marketing/reporting carrier display delay data for its non-reporting codeshare carrier(s). (14 CFR 234.11)

Title: Displaying On-time performance Information on Carrier website.

Respondents: U.S. carriers that operate scheduled passenger service that account for at least 0.5 percent of domestic scheduled passenger revenue and that market flights directly to consumers via a website.

Number of Respondents: 15 carriers.
Estimated Annual Burden on Respondents: 2 hours per month (24 hours annually) to cover both updates of a carrier's own delay data and updates of code-share delay data.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: No more than 360 hours (21,600 minutes) a year for all respondents. The estimate was calculated by multiplying the total number of hours per carrier per year for management of data links (24) by the number of covered carriers (15).

Frequency: Updating information for each flight listed on website 12 times per year (1 time per month) for each respondent (for both a carrier's own delay data and code-share delay data).

5. Requirement that carriers report certain tarmac delay data to BTS for each tarmac delay exceeding 3 Hours (for domestic flights) and exceeding 4 Hours (for international flights) (14 CFR 244.3)

Title: Reporting Tarmac Delay Data to BTS for Tarmac Delays Exceeding 3 Hours (for Domestic Flights) and 4 Hours (for International Flights).

Respondents: U.S. carriers that operate scheduled passenger service or public charter service using any aircraft with 30 or more seats, and foreign air carriers that operate scheduled passenger or public charter service to and from the United States using any aircraft with 30 or more seats.

Number of Respondents: 44 U.S. air carriers and 112 foreign air carriers.

Estimated Annual Burden on Respondents: 30 minutes per report filed. The expected burden per U.S. carrier is between 0 and 147 reports per year, and the expected burden per foreign carrier is between 0 and 2 reports per year (based on the highest and lowest number of reports submitted by each individual U.S. and foreign carrier from 2022 and 2023), or 0.0 to 73.5 hours of burden per U.S. carrier and 0.0 to 1.0 hours of burden per foreign carrier.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: Based on an average number of tarmac delays reported to BTS for 2022 and 2023, the estimated annual burden is 368 reports for U.S. carriers and foreign carriers, or a total of 184 hours (368 reports multiplied by 30 minutes per report).

Frequency: One report per respondent for each tarmac delay.
