Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (PRWORA); Interpretation of "Federal Public Benefit"

AGENCY: Office of the General Counsel, HUD.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice sets forth the interpretation that the U.S. Department of Housing and Development (HUD) uses for the term "Federal public benefit" as used in Title IV of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (PRWORA), and its exceptions. In doing so, this notice supersedes any prior interpretation in any notice or other document issued by any HUD program or office.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. David C. Woll, General Counsel, Office of the General Counsel, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 7th St. SW, Room 10110, Washington, DC 20410, telephone number 202-708-2244. HUD welcomes and is prepared to receive calls from individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing, as well as individuals with speech or communication disabilities. To learn more about how to make an accessible telephone call, please visit: <https://www.fcc.gov/consumers/guides/telecommunications-relay-service-trs>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

According to Section 401 of PRWORA, 8 U.S.C. 1611(a), aliens who are not "qualified aliens" are not eligible for any "Federal public benefit" as defined in 8 U.S.C. 1611(c). The prohibition set forth in § 1611(a) is subject to certain exceptions set forth in § 1611(b).

Section 401(c) of PRWORA, defines "Federal public benefit" as "(A) any grant, contract, loan, professional license, or commercial license provided by an agency of the United States or by appropriated funds of the United States" and "(B) any retirement, welfare, health, disability, public or assisted housing, postsecondary education, food assistance, unemployment benefit, or any other similar benefit for which payments or assistance are provided to an individual, household, or family eligibility unit by an agency of the United States or by appropriated funds of the United States." 8 U.S.C. 1611(c)(1). This definition, too, is subject to certain exceptions. See id. (c)(2) (setting forth certain exceptions to the definition of "Federal public benefit").

In addition, under Section 432 of PRWORA, as amended, to the extent required by law, providers of a nonexempt "Federal public benefit" must verify that a person applying for the benefit is a qualified alien and is eligible to receive the benefit. 8 U.S.C. 1642. While the verification requirement is necessary for proper enforcement of PRWORA, it is conceptually distinct from the meaning of the term "Federal public benefit" and this notice is not intended to address the application of such requirement. Neither does this notice speak to "Federal public benefits" that may be subject to other statutory authority besides PRWORA regarding citizenship and alien eligibility.

In the list of substantive exceptions under 8 U.S.C. 1611(b)(1) Congress provided that the prohibition against providing non-qualified aliens with any federal public benefit "shall not apply with respect to the following Federal public benefits:

(B) Short-term, non-cash, in-kind emergency disaster relief [. . .] "(D) Programs, services, or assistance (such as soup kitchens, crisis counseling and intervention, and short-term shelter) specified by the Attorney General, in the Attorney General's sole and unreviewable discretion after consultation with appropriate Federal agencies and departments, which (i) deliver in-kind services at the community level, including through public or private nonprofit agencies; (ii) do not condition the provision of assistance, the amount of assistance provided, or the cost of assistance provided on the individual recipient's income or resources; and (iii) are necessary for the protection of life or safety.

II. Interpretation

Statutory construction "must begin, and often should end as well, with the language of the statute itself." United States v. Steele, 147 F.3d 1316, 1318 (11th Cir. 1998) (quoting Merritt v. Dillard, 120 F.3d 1181, 1185 (11th Cir. 1997). "The plain meaning controls." United States v. Robinson, 94 F.3d 1325, 1328 (9th Cir. 1996) (citation omitted). The statutory language is clear: if a HUD program falls into either § 1611(c)(1)(A) or (c)(1)(B), such benefits are not available to individuals who are aliens, unless (i) that individual is a qualified alien, or (ii) some other exception applies to the HUD program, either under § 1611(b) or via the definitional limits on "Federal public benefit" set forth in (c)(2). Thus, the task is simple: construe the plain language of (c)(1)(A)
