SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background and Authority

The National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA), part of the U.S. Department of Commerce, is the President’s principal advisor on telecommunications and information policy issues. NTIA’s programs and policymaking focus largely on expanding broadband internet access and adoption in America, expanding the use of spectrum by all users, advancing public safety communications, and ensuring that the internet remains an engine for innovation and economic growth. This includes examining how broadband access is used in different contexts, including in educational settings. Pursuant to our authorities under 47 U.S.C. 902(b)(2)(M), NTIA will host a public listening session to gather stakeholder perspectives that will inform NTIA’s ongoing research.

Time and Date: NTIA will convene the public listening session on December 10, 2025, from 12:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m., Eastern Standard Time. The exact time of the meeting is subject to change. Please refer to NTIA’s website <https://www.ntia.gov>, for the most current information.

Place: The meeting will be held virtually, with dial-in information to be posted at <https://www.ntia.gov>. Please refer to NTIA’s website, <https://www.ntia.gov> for current information.

The virtual meeting is open to the public and the press on a first-come, first-served basis. The virtual meeting is accessible to people with disabilities. Individuals requiring accommodations such as real-time captioning, sign language interpretation or other ancillary aids should notify the Department at kids@ntia.gov at least seven (7) business days prior to the meeting. Access details for the meeting are subject to change. Please refer to NTIA’s website, <https://www.ntia.gov>, for the most current information.

Dated: November 24, 2025.
