Abstract of Information Available

A total of four cultural items have been requested for repatriation. The four objects of cultural patrimony are one bow with three arrows made by Jack Suehead (Object Numbers 1986.67.318.1-4). The objects were acquired by the Placer County Museums Division by donation in 1986. Information about how the donor, Bernice Pate, acquired the objects is unknown. Pate's husband, Waldo Pate, was a physician who treated local Indians. He often received baskets as payment for medical services and the couple continued collecting through purchases and gifts. In the 1960s, Bernice Pate served as the executive director of the California Indian Commission. The four objects of cultural patrimony are culturally affiliated with the Southern Maidu (Nisenan) and originated within their aboriginal territory in the vicinity of Placer County. The objects have not been exposed to any potentially hazardous substances while in the possession of the Placer County Museums Division. There is no visible evidence of prior treatment and no information indicating prior treatment.

Determinations

The Placer County Museums Division has determined that:

- The four objects of cultural patrimony described in this notice have ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to the Native American group, including any constituent sub-group (such as a band, clan, lineage, ceremonial society, or other subdivision), according to the Native American traditional knowledge of an Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

- There is a connection between the cultural items described in this notice and the United Auburn Indian Community of the Auburn Rancheria of California.
