

While the scope and applicability of the Computer III safeguards have changed with the Commission's 2015 decision regarding forbearance from enforcement of the Computer III requirements (Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. 160(c) from Enforcement of Obsolete ILEC Regulations that Inhibit Deployment of Next Generation Networks, Memorandum Opinion and Order, FCC 15-166 (2015)), these are minimum requirements under section 276(b)(1)(C) of the Act. Without information disclosures, the industry would be unable to ascertain whether the BOCs are designing new network services or changing network technical specifications to the advantage of their own payphones, or in a manner that might disadvantage BOC payphone competitors. These requirements ensure that BOCs comply with their obligations under the Telecommunications Act of 1996.

Re: Notice of Suspension and Initiation of Debarment Proceeding
File No. EB-IHD-25-00038361

Dear Mr. Jones,

The Enforcement Bureau (Bureau) of the Federal Communications Commission (Commission or FCC) received notice of your conviction of conspiracy to commit wire fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. 371, arising out of activities associated with the federal schools and libraries universal service support mechanism (E-Rate program).¹ The conspiracy involved submitting fabricated documents regarding public school districts in Tennessee and Missouri to the E-Rate Program and false co-pay documentation to the Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC), under the E-Rate program.² Consequently, pursuant to 47 CFR 54.8, this letter constitutes official notice of your suspension from the E-Rate program and all federal universal service support mechanisms.³ While suspended, you are prohibited from participating in or receiving any benefit associated with all federal universal service support mechanisms, including the E-Rate program. Additionally, in accordance with the Commission's rules, the Bureau is commencing a proceeding to debar you from future participation in all federal universal service support mechanisms for three years.⁴

² United States v. Charles A. "Chuck" Jones, Case No. 2:19-cr-20025-MSN, Second Superseding Indictment, at 7 (W.D. Tenn., filed Aug. 26, 2021) (Indictment).

⁴ 47 CFR 54.8; Id. 0.111 (delegating to the Enforcement Bureau authority to resolve universal service suspension and debarment proceedings). The Commission adopted debarment rules for the E-Rate program in 2003. See Schools and Libraries Universal Service Support Mechanism, Second Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 18 FCC Rcd 9202 (2003) (Second Report and Order) (adopting section 54.521 to suspend and debar parties from the E-Rate program). In 2007, the Commission extended the debarment rules to apply to all federal universal service support mechanisms. See Comprehensive Review of the Universal Service Fund Management, Administration, & Oversight, Report and Order, 22 FCC Rcd 16372, 16410-12 (2007) (Program Management Order) (renumbering section 54.521 of the universal service debarment rules as section 54.8 and amending subsections (a)(1), (a)(5), (c), (d), (e)(2)(i), (e)(3), (e)(4), and (g)).

I. Notice of Suspension

The Commission has established procedures to prevent persons who have defrauded the government or engaged in similar acts through activities associated with or related to the [E-Rate program] from receiving the benefits associated with that program.⁵ The statutory provisions and Commission rules relating to the E-Rate program are designed to ensure E-Rate funds are used for their intended purpose.⁶ Schools may receive E-Rate program funding for eligible goods and services by filing application forms, seeking competitive bids, and selecting the most cost-effective vendor.⁷ The E-Rate program rules prohibit an E-Rate vendor or anyone associated with an E-Rate vendor from participating in the application process or vendor selection.⁸ Solicitations for E-Rate services must be based on fair and open competitive bidding free from conflicts of interest.⁹

You pleaded guilty to a wire fraud conspiracy that involved knowingly and willfully devising a scheme and conspiracy to defraud the E-Rate program.¹⁰ From in or about 2004 through at least August 2014, you conspired with others to siphon more than $6,000,000 from the E-Rate Program to companies you owned.¹¹ You directed others to submit fabricated documents to the E-Rate Program and false co-pay documents to USAC.¹² Your actions to circumvent the E-Rate Program rules and review resulted in your companies fraudulently receiving approximately $6,900,000.¹³

In April 2023, the United States District Court for the Western District of Tennessee sentenced you to eighteen months of imprisonment followed by three years of supervised release.¹⁴ The court also ordered you to pay $3,500,000 in restitution and $100 as a special assessment fee.¹⁵

Pursuant to section 54.8(d) of the Commission's rules,¹⁶ your conviction requires the Bureau to suspend you from: (a) participating in any activities associated with or related to the E-Rate program, including the receipt of funds or discounted services through the E-Rate program, or consulting with, assisting, or advising applicants or service providers regarding the E-Rate program; and (b) participating in any activities associated with or related to all federal universal service support mechanisms.¹⁷ Your suspension becomes effective upon either your receipt of this letter or its publication in the Federal Register, whichever comes first.¹⁸

In accordance with the Commission's suspension and debarment rules, you may contest this suspension or the scope of this suspension by filing arguments, with any relevant documents, within thirty calendar days of your receipt of this letter or publication of notice of the suspension in the Federal Register, whichever comes first.¹⁹ Such requests, however, will not ordinarily be granted.²⁰ The Bureau may reverse or limit the scope of a suspension only upon a finding of extraordinary circumstances.²¹ The Bureau will decide any request to reverse or modify a suspension within ninety calendar days of its receipt of such request.²²

II. Initiation of Debarment Proceedings

In addition to requiring your immediate suspension from all federal universal service support mechanisms, including the E-Rate program, your conviction is cause for debarment as defined in section 54.8(c) of the Commission's rules.²³ Therefore, pursuant to section 54.8(b) of the Commission's rules, your conviction requires the Bureau to commence debarment proceedings against you.²⁴

As with the suspension process, you may contest the proposed debarment or the scope of the proposed debarment by filing arguments and any relevant documentation within thirty calendar days of receipt of this letter or its publication in the Federal Register, whichever comes first.²⁵ The Bureau, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, will notify you of its decision to debar within ninety calendar days of receiving any information you may have filed.²⁶ If the Bureau decides to debar you, its decision will become effective upon either your receipt of a debarment notice or publication of the decision in the Federal Register, whichever comes first.²⁷

If and when your debarment becomes effective, you will be prohibited from participating in activities associated with or related to all federal universal service support mechanisms, including the E-Rate program, for three years from the date of debarment.²⁸ The Bureau may set a longer debarment period or extend an existing debarment period if necessary to protect the public interest.²⁹ Pursuant to the Commission's rules, should you choose to contest the scope or length of any such debarment, you must file arguments and any relevant documentation within thirty calendar days of receipt of this letter or the publication in the Federal Register of such proposed debarment, whichever is earlier.³⁰
