

D. Submission of Requests To Continue Either Action

Representatives of a domestic industry that benefits from either of the two actions under Section 301, as modified, may submit a request to continue the July 6, 2018 action, or the August 23, 2018 action, as modified, or both, using the portal corresponding to the trade action at <https://comments.ustr.gov/s/>, according to the following schedule:

- For the July 6, 2018, action, as modified, any representative of a domestic industry which benefits from the action may submit a request to continue the action between May 7, 2026, and July 5, 2026.
- For the August 23, 2018 action, as modified, any representative of domestic industries benefitting from the action may submit a request to continue the action between June 24, 2026, and August 22, 2026.

Fields marked with an asterisk (*) are required fields. A request to continue the action should identify the specific industry concerned and should address how the domestic industry benefits from the July 6, 2018, action or August 23, 2018, action, as modified. If a representative of a domestic industry which benefits from an action wishes to receive business confidential treatment for its request to continue the action, please contact USTR at the number specified above. Requests to continue the action will not be posted immediately, but will be summarized in the notices announcing whether the July 6, 2018, action or August 23, 2018, action, as modified will be continued.

E. Second Phase of the Review

USTR will announce in subsequent notices whether it has received a request for continuation of the July 6, 2018, action or August 23, 2018, action, as modified, from a representative of a domestic industry which benefits from the action. If USTR receives such a request, the U.S. Trade Representative will announce the continuation of the action, and will undertake a review of the action as described in Section 307(c)(3) of the Trade Act (19 U.S.C. 2417(c)(3)). As part of that review, USTR intends to invite through a separate portal interested persons to submit comments on, among other matters, the effectiveness of the action in achieving the objectives of Section 301, other actions that could be taken, and the effects of such actions on the United States economy, including consumers.

Federal Aviation Administration

[Docket No. FAA-2026-4678]

Agency Information Collection Activities: Requests for Comments; Clearance of a Renewed Approval of Information Collection: Flight Engineers and Flight Navigators

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Notice and request for comments.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, FAA invites public comments about our intention to request the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) approval to renew an information collection. This collection involves FAA Form 8400-3, Application for an Airman Certificate and/or Rating, (for flight engineer and flight navigator) and applications for approval of related training courses that are submitted to FAA for evaluation. The information collection is necessary to determine applicant eligibility for flight engineer or flight navigator certificates. This collection is also necessary to determine training course acceptability for those schools training flight engineers or navigators.

DATES: Written comments should be submitted by July 6, 2026.

ADDRESSES: Please send written comments:

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Public Comments Invited: You are asked to comment on any aspect of this information collection, including (a) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for FAA's performance; (b) the accuracy of the estimated burden; (c) ways for FAA to enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information collection; and (d) ways that the burden could be minimized without reducing the quality of the collected information. The agency will summarize and/or include your comments in the request for OMB's clearance of this information collection.

OMB Control Number: 2120-0007.

Title: Flight Engineers and Flight Navigators.

Form Numbers: 8400-3.

Type of Review: Renewal of an information collection.

Background: The information collection is necessary to determine applicant eligibility for flight engineer or flight navigator certificates. This collection is also necessary to determine training course acceptability for those schools training flight engineers or navigators. FAA Form 8400-3, Application for an Airman Certificate and/or Rating, (for flight engineer and flight navigator) and applications for approval of related training courses are available online and are submitted to FAA for evaluation. FAA Form 8400-3 requests information related to type of certificate applying for, applicant's demographic information, current certificates held by the applicant, instructor's recommendation and evaluation record. The information is reviewed to determine applicant eligibility and compliance with prescribed provisions of Title 14 CFR part 63, Certification: Flight Crewmembers Other Than Pilots. Form 8400-3 is multiple-use form also used for control tower operators and aircraft dispatchers.

Respondents: Airman Applicants and Training Schools.

Frequency: Flight Engineer school will renew approval on one course every 24 months, revisions will be submitted as necessary.

Estimated Average Burden per Response: 12 hours.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: 231 Hours.
