NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

Proposal Review; Notice of Meetings

In accordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Pub. L. 92-463, as amended), the National Science Foundation (NSF) announces its intent to hold proposal review meetings throughout the year. The purpose of these meetings is to provide advice and recommendations concerning proposals submitted to the NSF for financial support. The agenda for each of these meetings is to review and evaluate proposals as part of the selection process for awards. The review and evaluation may also include assessment of the progress of awarded proposals. The majority of these meetings will take place at NSF, 401 Dulany Street, Alexandria, VA 22314.

These meetings will be closed to the public. The proposals being reviewed include information of a proprietary or confidential nature, including technical information; financial data, such as salaries; and personal information concerning individuals associated with the proposals. These matters are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552b(c), (4) and (6) of the Government in the Sunshine Act. NSF will continue to review the agenda and merits of each meeting for overall compliance of the Federal Advisory Committee Act.

These closed proposal review meetings will not be announced on an individual basis in the Federal Register. NSF intends to publish a notice similar to this on a quarterly basis. For an advance listing of the closed proposal review meetings that include the names of the proposal review panel and the time, date, place, and any information on changes, corrections, or cancellations, please visit the NSF website: <https://nsf.gov/events/proposal-review-panels>. This information may also be requested by telephoning, 703/292-8687.

I. Introduction and Overview

On April 30, 2026, the Postal Service filed notice with the Commission concerning changes in rates and classifications not of general applicability for Competitive products.<sup>1</sup> The Postal Service represents that, as required by 39 CFR 3035.105(b), the <sup>1</sup>USPS Notice of Changes in Rates and Classifications Not of General Applicability for Competitive Products, April 30, 2026 (Notice).

Notice includes an explanation and justification for the changes, the effective date, and a schedule of the changed rates. See Notice at 1. The Notice also includes a certification of the vote, and a redacted copy of Governors' Decision 19-1. Id. The changes are intended to take effect by mid-July, 2026, or sooner upon favorable review by the Commission. Id. at 1-2.

Attached to the Notice is Governors' Decision No. 19-1, which states the new prices are in accordance with 39 U.S.C. 3632 and 3633 and 39 CFR 3015.5 and 3015.7.<sup>2</sup> The Governors' Decision provides an analysis of the Competitive products' price and classification changes intended to demonstrate that the changes comply with 39 U.S.C. 3633 and 39 CFR 3015.7(c).<sup>3</sup> Another attachment sets forth the rate and classification changes and includes draft Mail Classification Schedule (MCS) language for Competitive products not of general applicability.

The Notice includes an application for non-public treatment of the unredacted Governors' Decision, the non-published rates, the price floors, and the supporting financial material filed under seal. Notice at 5.

Planned rate and classification changes. The Postal Service's planned rate and classification "changes establish the Government Rate Card (GRC) as a set of non-published rates available only for federal, state, or local government entities who use approved postal payment methods, for the following competitive products: Priority Mail Express, Priority Mail, and USPS Ground Advantage®." Id. at 1 (footnote omitted). The GRC rates "are considered 'Other Non-Published Competitive Rates. . .not embodied in contractual instruments' pursuant to Governors' Decision 19-1." Id. The Notice also includes text changes to the associated MCS language to reflect the parameters of the established GRC under each applicable product. Id.
