Overview of This Information Collection

Title: African Growth and Opportunity Act (AGOA) Textile Certificate of Origin.

OMB Number: 1651–0082.

Form Number: N/A.

Current Actions: Extension.

Type of Review: Extension (without change).

Affected Public: Businesses.

Abstract: The African Growth and Opportunity Act (AGOA) was adopted by the U.S. with the enactment of the Trade and Development Act of 2000 (PL.106–200). The objectives of AGOA are (1) to provide for extension of duty-free treatment under the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) to import sensitive articles normally excluded from GSP duty treatment, and (2) to provide for the entry of certain eligible textile and apparel articles from the countries of sub-Saharan Africa free of duty and free of any quantitative limits.

For preferential treatment of textile and apparel articles under AGOA, the exporter or producer, or the exporter’s or producer’s authorized agent having knowledge of the facts, is required to prepare a certificate of origin and provide it to the importer. The certificate of origin includes information such as contact information for the importer, exporter, and producer; the basis for which preferential treatment is claimed; and a description of the imported merchandise. The importers are required to have the certificate in their possession at the time of the claim, and to provide it to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) upon request. The collection of this information is provided for in 19 CFR 10.214, 10.215, and 10.216.

Instructions for complying with this regulation are posted on www.cbp.gov website at: <https://www.cbp.gov/trade/rulings/informed-compliance-publications>.

This collection of information applies to the importing and trade community who are familiar with import procedures and with the CBP regulations.
