

expanding its NDX options offerings to include A.M.-settled Nonstandard NDX Options will provide investors with additional means of managing their risk exposures and carrying out their investment objectives.²¹ Further, the Exchange also states there is sufficient investor interest in and demand for A.M.-settled Nonstandard NDX Options to warrant adding these expirations.²²

In addition, the Exchange states that it does not believe increases in the number of options series and expirations will have any significant adverse economic impact on the futures, index, or underlying index component securities markets.²³ The Exchange states that it currently lists standard A.M.-settled expirations for NDX options along with P.M.-settled expirations.²⁴ The Exchange explains that it has not experienced any meaningful regulatory concerns, nor adverse impact on fair and orderly markets, in connection with the listing of standard A.M.-settled expirations NDX options concurrently with P.M.-settled expirations for NDX, nor with its Nonstandard Expirations Program more generally.²⁵ The Exchange represents that it has the necessary systems capacity to support any additional traffic associated with trading of A.M.-settled Nonstandard NDX Options and does not believe that its Members will experience any capacity issues as a result of this proposal.²⁶ Finally, the Exchange represents that its existing surveillance and reporting safeguards in place are adequate to deter and detect possible manipulative trading which might arise from listing and trading A.M.-settled Nonstandard NDX Options.²⁷

As noted above, the Exchange may currently trade standard A.M.-settled NDX options on the same day as P.M.-settled NDX options on Expiration Friday. The Exchange's proposal, which would permit additional A.M.-settled NDX option expirations, is reasonably designed as a limited expansion of the existing NDX index options expirations and may provide the investing public and other market participants more flexibility to closely tailor their investment and hedging decisions. The Exchange has represented that it has an adequate surveillance program in place to monitor trading in A.M.-settled Nonstandard NDX Options and has the necessary systems capacity to support the new options series.²⁸ The Exchange also represents that it will monitor the trading volume associated with any possible additional NDX options series listed as a result of the proposal and the effect of these additional series on market fragmentation and on the capacity of the Exchange's automated systems.²⁹ The Commission expects the Exchange to continue to monitor any potential risks from large A.M.-settled positions and take appropriate action on a timely basis if warranted.

For these reasons, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) of the Act³⁰ and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to a national securities exchange.

IV. Conclusion

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,³¹ that the proposed rule change (SR-ISE-2026-22), be, and hereby is, approved.

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.³²

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose
