A person or party who wishes to protest one or more plats of survey identified in this notice must file a written notice of protest within 30 calendar days from the date of this publication with the BLM Wyoming State Director at the address listed in the ADDRESSES section of this notice.

The notice of protest must identify the specific plat(s) of survey that the person or party wishes to protest. If a notice of protest is received after regular business hours, a notice of protest will be considered filed the next business day. Any notice of protest filed after the scheduled date of official filing will be untimely and will not be considered.

A written statement of reasons in support of a protest, if not filed with the notice of protest, must be filed with the BLM Wyoming State Director within 30 calendar days after the notice of protest is received.

If a notice of protest against a plat of survey is received prior to the scheduled date of official filing, the official filing of the plat of survey identified in the notice of protest will be stayed pending consideration of the protest. A plat of survey will not be officially filed until the next business day following dismissal or resolution of all protests of the plat.

Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your protest, you should be aware that your entire protest—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Public Land Order No. 7970; Extension of Public Land Order No. 7668, Utah Lake Drainage Basin and Diamond Fork Systems, Bonneville Unit of the Central Utah Project, Utah

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: Public land order.

SUMMARY: This Public Land Order (PLO) extends, for an additional 20-year term, the withdrawal established by PLO No. 7668, which would otherwise expire on July 26, 2026. The extension is necessary to prevent uses that could conflict with the operation of the Utah Lake Drainage Basin and Diamond Fork Systems, Bonneville Unit of the Central Utah Project, which supports Utah's irrigation, municipal, industrial, hydroelectric, conservation, and recreation needs. The lands have been, and will remain, open to mineral leasing and to all other uses legally authorized on National Forest System lands.

DATES: This PLO takes effect on July 26, 2026.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Brendan Willig, Utah State Office, by phone at (385) 835–2123. Individuals in the United States who are deaf, deafblind, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability may dial 711 (TTY, TDD, or TeleBraille) to access telecommunications relay services. Individuals outside the United States should use the relay services offered within their country to make international calls to the point-of-contact in the United States.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This Order extends the existing withdrawal to prevent incompatible uses from affecting the operation of the Utah Lake Drainage Basin and Diamond Fork Systems, Bonneville Unit of the Central Utah Project, which supports Utah's use of water for irrigation, municipal and industrial needs, hydroelectric power, conservation, and recreation.

Order

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by section 204 of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976, 43

U.S.C.1714, it is ordered as follows:

1. PLO No. 7668, (71 FR 42661–42662), which originally withdrew approximately 6,450 acres from location and entry under the United States mining laws, is hereby extended for an additional 20-year term, subject to valid existing rights. The legal description is corrected as described below, and aggregates 6,558.96 acres.

The land description for this Order is as follows:

Uinta National Forest
