DOJ seeks PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) years. OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal. The DOJ notes that information collection requirements submitted to the OMB for existing ICRs receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review.

Overview of This Information Collection

1. Type of Information Collection: Existing collection without an OMB number.
2. Title of the Form/Collection: Medical History and Examination.
3. Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: DEA–325, Drug Enforcement Administration.
4. Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Affected Public: Individuals.
Abstract: The information collected is the basis for determining medical eligibility of applicants for duty in law enforcement and certain law enforcement support positions with the Drug Enforcement Administration. This information is needed to determine the medical qualifications of applicants based upon their current and past medical history. The information obtained on the DEA–325 ensures the applicant is physically and medically capable of performing the essential duties of the position efficiently and without hazard to themselves or to others. The DEA–325 is needed as part of the required medical examination to assist physicians in making determinations as to medical clearance of applicants for positions within the DEA that are subject to medical standards, and verifies disqualifying medical condition(s) documented on the medical history and examination form.

5. Obligation to Respond: Required to obtain employment is positions subject to medical standards, GS–1811 (Special Agents), GS–1801 (Diversion Investigators) and GS–1320 (Forensic Chemists).

6. Total Estimated Number of Respondents: 1,800.

7. Estimated Time per Respondent: 4 hours.

8. Frequency: Once prior to employment.

9. Total Estimated Annual Time Burden: 7,200 hours.

10. Total Estimated Annual Other Costs Burden: $0 [This is captured in #7 of the 60 day notice, in ROCIS and #13 of Supporting Statement A].

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[OMB Number 1140–0020]

Agency Information Collection Activities; Proposed Collection; Comments Requested; Firearms Transaction Record—ATF Form 5300.9 and 5300.9A (“Form 4473”)

AGENCY: Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives; Department of Justice.

ACTION: Interim notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Justice (DOJ), Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco,

Firearms, and Explosives (ATF), will be submitting the following information collection request (ICR) to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA). The proposed information collection was previously published in the Federal Register, 91 FR 25448, on May 8, 2026, allowing a 60-day comment period. This interim notice informs the public that ATF is requesting that OMB extend the existing ICR 1140–0020 without change. ATF will be publishing the usual second notice for a 30-day public comment period on proposed changes to the ICR thereafter.

ATF received comments on the proposed changes to Form 4473 under this ICR that it needs some time to address. In addition, because some of the proposed changes and comments reflect proposed revisions to associated regulations¹ whose public comment period does not end until a month after the 60-day ICR comment period ended, ATF needs additional time to assess those comments as well. However, the existing ICR is expiring at the end of August and thus does not afford sufficient time before it expires. As a result, ATF is publishing this interim notice to inform the public that it will be requesting that OMB extend the existing ICR without change while it addresses public comments, and will follow up with the normal 30-day notice to complete the PRA renewal process for the ICR's proposed changes. The request to extend the existing ICR is necessary to ensure continuity while ATF considers the public comments, so that federal firearms licensees continue to have a valid form on which to record firearms transactions in accordance with applicable regulations. In the subsequent 30-day notice, ATF will summarize as usual the public comments it received on the ICR's proposed changes, provide responses, and note any changes that might result. The public will have 30 days to then submit comments to OMB on the ICR, as per the usual PRA process.

DATES: This notice is effective July 29, 2026.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: If you need additional information or have questions on this notice, contact: Darwin Arceo, Department Clearance Officer, Policy and Planning Staff,

Justice Management Division; United States Department of Justice; Two Constitution Square, 145 N Street NE, 4W–218 Washington, DC 20530.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: DOJ will be seeking PRA authorization for this information collection for three years. OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three years without renewal. DOJ notes that information collection requirements submitted to OMB for existing ICRs receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review; DOJ is requesting this same extension for the time it needs to respond to public comments before submitting to OMB for review.

Dated: July 27, 2026.

Department Clearance Officer for PRA, U.S. Department of Justice.
