

future. Interests of general deterrence also support a sanction of revocation, as any sanction less than revocation would signal to the registrant community that intentional diversion and repeated acts of unlawful prescribing can be excused, even in cases where a registrant has failed to accept responsibility for such misconduct.

In sum, Respondent has not offered sufficient credible evidence on the record to rebut the Government's case for revocation and Respondent has not demonstrated that she can be entrusted with the responsibility of registration. Accordingly, the Agency will order that Respondent's registrations be revoked.

Order

Pursuant to 28 CFR 0.100(b) and the authority vested in me by 21 U.S.C. 824(a) and 21 U.S.C. 823(g)(1), I hereby revoke DEA Certificates of Registration Nos. MM3336422 and MR5666106 issued to Joan Rubinger, N.P. Further, pursuant to 28 CFR 0.100(b) and the authority vested in me by 21 U.S.C. 823(g)(1), I hereby deny any pending applications of Joan Rubinger, N.P., to renew or modify these registrations, as well as any other pending application of Joan Rubinger, N.P., for additional registration in California and/or New York.²⁷ This Order is effective August 31, 2026.

Signing Authority

This document of the Drug Enforcement Administration was signed on July 24, 2026, by DEA Administrator Terrance C. Cole. That document with the original signature and date is maintained by DEA. For administrative purposes only, and in compliance with requirements of the Office of the Federal Register, the undersigned DEA Federal Register Liaison Officer has been authorized to sign and submit the document in electronic format for publication, as an official document of DEA. This administrative process in no way alters the legal effect of this ²⁷ The Agency may revoke Respondent's New York registration based on Respondent's egregious misconduct in California. See, e.g., Roberto Zayas, M.D., 82 FR 21410, 21430 (2017) (revoking the respondent's Florida registration and denying his Texas renewal application based on misconduct in Texas). The Administrator's determination that Respondent may not be trusted with a registration disqualifies her for current DEA registration in all states. See Suntime Pharmacy and Suntime Medical Equipment, LLC, 85 FR 73753, 73755 (2020) ("If a practitioner holding multiple registrations cannot be entrusted with one, it would be difficult to justify entrusting the same practitioner with another in a separate location.").

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Clean Air Act

On July 24, 2026, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed Consent Decree in the United States District Court for the Western District of Arkansas in the lawsuit entitled United States, et al. v. Domtar A.W., LLC, Case No. 4:26–cv–04059–JTS.

The United States filed this action with Arkansas Department of Energy & Environment, Division of Environmental Quality against the Defendant for violations of the Clean Air Act and the Arkansas Water and Air Pollution Control Act. The complaint alleges that the Defendant violated the New Source Performance Standards and the National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants at its kraft paper/pulp mill in Ashdown, Arkansas. Under the proposed Consent Decree, the Defendant has agreed to pay a penalty of $1,500,000 and perform injunctive relief, including two mitigation projects to resolve the governments' claims.

The publication of this notice opens a period for public comment on the Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and should refer to United States, et al. v. Domtar A.W., LLC, D.J. Ref. No. 90–5–2–1–12655. All comments must be submitted no later than thirty (30) days after the publication date of this notice. Comments may be submitted either by email or by mail:
