Intra-Market Competition

Nothing in the Proposal burdens intra-market competition (i.e., the competition among consumers of exchange data) because corporate actions information will be available to any market participant, including both members and non-members, on a non-discriminatory basis. In addition, Nasdaq will not have any time advantage in the dissemination of the corporate actions information because it will delay dissemination of the Daily List for fifteen minutes after any information an issuer releases becomes public and after publication of the FTP Information by Nasdaq, to allow competitors time to compile their own product.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were either solicited or received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days after the date of the filing, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(iii) of the Act [24] and subparagraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b–4 thereunder.[25]

At any time within 60 days of the filing of such proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings under Section 19(b)(2)(B) [26] of the Act to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved.

[24] 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A)(iii).

[25] 17 CFR 240.19b–4(f)(6). In addition, Rule 19b–4(f)(6) requires a self-regulatory organization to give the Commission written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change, along with a brief description and text of the proposed rule change, at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission. The Exchange has satisfied this requirement.

[26] 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(2)(B).

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[OMB Control No. 3235–0178]

Agency Information Collection Activities; Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request; Extension: Rule 31a–1

Upon Written Request, Copies Available From: Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of FOIA Services, 100 F Street NE, Washington, DC 20549–2736

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC or "Commission") is submitting to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) this request for extension of the proposed collection of information described below.

Rule 31a–1 (17 CFR 270.31a–1) under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. 80a) requires registered investment companies, business development companies (BDCs), and certain of their majority-owned subsidiaries to maintain and keep current the accounts, books, auditors' certificates, and other documents that underlie and support the financial statements these entities are required to file with the Commission under section 30 of the Act. The Commission regularly conducts inspections and examinations of funds and other regulated entities to foster compliance with the securities laws, to detect violations of the law, and to keep the Commission informed of developments in the regulated community. Without the information contained in the records required by rule 31a–1, the Commission could not readily determine whether funds are in compliance with the Act's provisions. The rule's requirement to maintain such records avoids the need for potentially more burdensome requirements such as mandatory filings of similar information with the Commission.

The collection of information is found at 17 CFR 270.31a–1. Compliance with the recordkeeping requirements of rule 31a–1 is mandatory for registered investment companies, BDCs, and certain majority-owned subsidiaries, as required by section 31(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. 80a–30(a)).

The books and records required to be maintained by rule 31a–1 constitute a major focus of the Commission's inspection and examination programs. The Commission uses these records during inspections and examinations to foster compliance with the securities laws, to detect violations of the law, and to keep the Commission informed of developments in the regulated community.

The Commission staff estimates that there are approximately 14,301 total entities (14,125 series of investment companies and 176 BDCs) required to comply with rule 31a–1. Each entity spends approximately 1,750 hours per year complying with the rule, for a total estimated annual burden of 25,026,750 hours. However, the Commission estimates that at least 90% of this burden would be incurred in any case as a normal business practice, resulting in an estimated actual annual burden of 2,502,675 hours attributable to the rule. The estimated annual cost per entity is $613,200, broken down as follows: 175 hours by office clerks at $144 per hour ($25,200); 1,312.5 hours by fund accountants and auditors at $348 per hour ($456,750); 87.5 hours by lawyers at $744 per hour ($65,100); and 175 hours by management analysts at $378 per hour ($66,150). The total estimated annual cost to the industry attributable to the rule is approximately $877 million. There is no external cost burden beyond the internal labor costs described above.

This is a recordkeeping requirement and no reporting or filing with the Commission is required; therefore, confidentiality is not applicable. The records required by rule 31a–1 are required to be preserved pursuant to rule 31a–2 under the Investment Company Act (17 CFR 270.31a–2), which specifies the retention periods for various categories of records.

A copy of the collection of information and related instructions may be obtained at no charge at the Securities and Exchange Commission's website at www.sec.gov or at reginfo.gov. Written comments are invited on: (a) whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency; (b) the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the collection of information; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents. Comments should be directed to the Office of Management and Budget, Attention: Desk Officer for the Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Washington, DC 20503, or by sending an email to OIRA_submission@omb.eop.gov. Comments must be submitted within 30 days of this notice.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

The public may view and comment on this information collection request at: https://www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAViewICR?ref_nbr=202605-3235-022 or email comment to MBX.OMB.OIRA.SEC_desk_officer@omb.eop.gov within 30 days of the day after publication of this notice, by September 8, 2026.

Dated: August 4, 2026.
