Please provide a copy of your comments to Steven W. Perry, bjspra.comments@ojp.usdoj.gov, (202) 307–0765, and reference OMB # 1121–0366 in the subject line of your comments.

DOJ seeks PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) years. OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal. The DOJ notes that information collection requirements submitted to the OMB for existing ICRs receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review.

Overview of This Information Collection

1. Type of Information Collection: Reinstatement, with change, of a previously approved collection for which approval has expired.

2. Title of the Form/Collection: 2025 Census of Tribal Law Enforcement Agencies (CTLEA).

3. Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: The form number is CTLEA–25. The applicable component within the Department of Justice is the Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS), in the Office of Justice Programs.

4. Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Affected Public: Affected public are tribal law enforcement agencies. The 2025 CTLEA is revised from the 2018 CTLEA. BJS plans to field the 2025 CTLEA from September through December 2026. Respondents will be the staff at tribal law enforcement agencies. The obligation to respond is voluntary.

5. Abstract: The Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) has previously conducted the Census of Tribal Law Enforcement (CTLEA) through a survey that collects data on the staffing, functions, workloads, training, and operations of tribal law enforcement agencies serving tribal lands. 2025 CTLEA will be the second administration of this collection. It will provide insight into emerging issues and challenges facing tribal law enforcement agencies since it was last conducted in 2018 and establish a time series of the data collection. BJS uses the information gathered in the CTLEA in published reports and statistics. The reports will be made available to the U.S. Congress, Executive Office of the President, tribal nations and justice agencies, practitioners, researchers, students, the media, others interested in criminal justice statistics, and the public via the BJS website.

6. Obligation to Respond: The obligation to respond is voluntary.

7. Total Estimated Number of Respondents: A projected 303 respondents from tribal law enforcement agencies.

8. Estimated Time per Respondent: A projected 303 respondents from tribal law enforcement agencies will take an average of 30 minutes (0.5 hours) each to complete the web form CTLEA. The time to review the invitation materials is 5 minutes and to complete the Question Guide is estimated to be 15 minutes to research or find information not readily available. In addition, an estimated 30 respondents will be contacted for data quality follow-up at 15 minutes (.25 hours) per respondent.

9. Frequency: Each respondent will complete the CTLEA–25 once.

10. Total Estimated Annual Time Burden: The total estimated burden hours for this collection is 260 hours.

11. An estimate of the total annual cost burden associated with the collection, if applicable: BJS estimates the total annual cost burden to the respondents based on the mean hourly rate for police officer ($38.16) for 260 burden hours is $ 9,921.60.
