Abstract of Information Available

The four associated funerary objects are white marble grave markers removed from Poplar Grove National Cemetery in Dinwiddie County, Virginia. They were created by the U.S. Government's War Department prior to 1933 and marked the graves of John Kennewanche, Company K, 1st Michigan Sharpshooters; and Gazick Maska/Mosca, Nippie Peaches and Joseph Scott who each served in the 38th Wisconsin Infantry. The markers contain the grave number and the soldier's name with raised letters within a recessed shield.

The grave markers have been stored within Petersburg National Battlefield since 2017 when new grave markers were installed as a part of the rehabilitation of Poplar Grove National Cemetery. Prior consultations and a completed Programmatic Agreement determined that John Kennewanche had an unknown Michigan tribal affiliation; and that Gazick Maska/Mosca, Nippie Peaches, and Joseph Scott were possibly affiliated with the Chippewa or Menominee.

Determinations

The Petersburg National Battlefield has determined that:

- The four objects described in this notice are reasonably believed to have been placed intentionally with or near individual human remains at the time of death or later as part of the death rite or ceremony.
- The Grand Traverse Band of Ottawa and Chippewa Indians, Michigan; Hannahville Indian Community, Michigan; Little River Band of Ottawa Indians, Michigan; Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, Michigan; and the Pokagon Band of Potawatomi Indians, Michigan and Indiana have priority for disposition of the associated funerary object described in this notice as representing John Kennewanche of Company K, 1st Michigan Sharpshooters.
- The Menominee Indian Tribe of Wisconsin; Red Cliff Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Indians of Wisconsin; and the Stockbridge Munsee Community, Wisconsin have priority for disposition of the three associated funerary objects described in this notice as representing Gazick Maska/Mosca, Nippie Peaches and Joseph Scott of the 38th Wisconsin Infantry.
