

documentation in support of their certification for 3 years after the date it is submitted to FSA. All information provided to FSA for program eligibility and payment calculation purposes, including certification on FSA-524-C, is subject to spot check. If requested by FSA, producers must submit documentation to FSA to support their certification within 30 calendar days of the request.

If a producer certified in error that all eligible crops were insured or covered by NAP and their revenue loss for those crops is not de minimis, the producer must repay the overpayment that resulted from calculation of their payment using a 90 percent payment factor. FSA will recalculate the ERP 2022 payment using a 70 percent payment factor, and the producer must repay the overpayment amount as instructed in the notification.

Paperwork Reduction Act Requirements

The information collection request for ERP 2022, including producer notification and the use of form FSA-524-C as described in this notice, has been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act. The OMB control number for the approval is 0560-0316.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

In accordance with the provisions of FACA, the Secretary of Agriculture is seeking nominations for the purpose of improving collaborative relationships among people who use and care for national forests and provide advice and recommendations to the Forest Service concerning projects and funding consistent with Title II. The duties of SRS RACs include monitoring projects, advising the Secretary on the progress and results of monitoring efforts, and making recommendations to the Forest Service for any appropriate changes or adjustments to the projects being monitored by the SRS RACs.

SRS RACs Membership

The SRS RACs will be comprised of 15 members approved by the Secretary of Agriculture where each will serve a 4-year term. SRS RACs memberships will be balanced in terms of the points of view represented and functions to be performed. The SRS RACs shall include representation from the following interest areas:

- (1) Five persons that represent:
 - (a) Organized labor or non-timber forest product harvester groups;
 - (b) Developed outdoor recreation, off-highway vehicle users, or commercial recreation activities;
 - (c) Energy and mineral development, or commercial or recreational fishing groups;
 - (d) Commercial timber industry; and
 - (e) Federal grazing permit or other land use permit holders, or representative of non-industrial private forest landowners, within the area for which the committee is organized.

- (2) Five persons that represent:
 - (a) Nationally or regionally recognized environmental organizations;
 - (b) Regionally or locally recognized environmental organizations;
 - (c) Dispersed recreational activities;
 - (d) Archaeology and history; and
 - (e) Nationally or regionally recognized wild horse and burro interest, wildlife hunting organizations, or watershed associations.

- (3) Five persons that represent:

- (a) State elected office holder;
- (b) County or local elected office holder;

- (c) American Indian Tribes within or adjacent to the area for which the committee is organized;

- (d) Are school officials or teachers; and

- (e) Affected public-at-large.

In accordance with the Act, the Secretary shall make appointments to fill vacancies on any resource advisory committee as soon as practicable after the vacancy has occurred. The Designated Federal Officer (DFO) may consider recommending to the Secretary to fill the vacancy with a candidate from the applicant pool, provided an appropriate candidate is available. SRS RAC members serve without compensation. In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 5703, RAC members and replacements may be allowed travel expenses and per diem for attendance at committee meetings, subject to approval as determined by the Forest Supervisor responsible to the SRS RAC.

Nomination and Application Information

The appointment of members to the SRS RACs will be made by the Secretary of Agriculture. The public is invited to submit nominations for membership on the SRS RACs, either as self-nomination or a nomination of any qualified and interested person. Any individual or organization may nominate one or more qualified persons to represent the interest areas listed above.

To be considered for membership, nominees must:

1. Be a resident of the State in which the SRS RAC has jurisdiction,

2. Identify what interest group they would represent and how they are qualified to represent that interest group,

3. Provide a cover letter stating why they want to serve on the SRS RAC and what they can contribute,

4. Provide a resume showing their experience in working successfully as part of a group working on forest management activities,

5. Complete Form AD-755, Advisory Committee or Research and Promotion

Background Information <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/ad-755-advisory-committee-commodity-board-background-information.pdf>.

Additional information may be obtained by visiting the Secure Rural Schools website at: <https://www.fs.usda.gov/working-with-us/secure-rural-schools/title-2>. All nominations will be vetted through the Department of Agriculture's Office of the Secretary.
