FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: To request more information on this proposed information collection or to obtain a copy of the proposal and associated collection instruments, please write to the Office of Special Needs, 4800 Mark Center Drive, Suite 03G15, Military Community Family Policy, Alexandria, VA 22350-2300, Kevin Hamilton, 571-726-5914.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title; Associated Form; and OMB Number: Exceptional Family Member Program; DD Form 2792, "Family Member Medical Summary," and DD Form 2792-1, "Special Education/Early Intervention Summary; OMB Control Number 0704-0411.

Needs and Uses: This information collection is necessary to identify any special medical (DD Form 2792) and/or educational (DD Form 2792-1) needs of military dependents to ensure the needs are considered when being assigned to a new location. The purpose of this information collection is to (1) enroll sponsors into the Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP), (2) consider the special needs of family members and the availability of medical and educational services through the Family Member Travel Screening (FMTS) process, and (3) advise civilian employees about the availability of medical and educational services to meet the special needs of their family members in overseas locations.

The sponsor or family member completes the demographics section on both collections, a qualified medical provider completes the medical summary on DD 2792, and the special education or early intervention staff completes the early intervention/special education summary of the DD 2792-1. On the DD 2792, the sponsor or family member provides authorization for disclosure of the medical information and certifies the accuracy of the information. On DD 2792-1, the sponsor or family member authorizes the release of information.

The information is provided to EFMP medical personnel for enrollment in the program, and both medical and educational screening personnel for their determination of the availability of medical and education resources necessary to meet the family member's needs. The medical and/or educational recommendation is supplied to the appropriate Military Department's personnel department in determining the future assignment for the service member.

This information collection may also be used to identify available medical and educational resources to DoD civilian employees who are considering a job overseas to assist them in deciding whether to relocate overseas with a family member who has special medical or educational needs.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title; Associated Form; and OMB Number: Navy CHINFO Quarterly Brand Opinion Survey; OMB Control Number 0703-0090.

Needs and Uses: The Navy Chief of Information (CHINFO) requires this recurrent information collection to fulfill its mandate under OPNAV Instruction 5726.8C, "Outreach: America's Navy," which requires providing public affairs advice to the Secretary of the Navy and the Chief of Naval Operations. To provide informed, strategic counsel, CHINFO must continuously assess the public communication environment, track public understanding of the U.S. Navy and its operations, and monitor recent trends that affect public perception. This empirical brand and opinion research is necessary to evaluate current public perceptions, advise senior U.S. Navy leadership on how emerging global issues will be received, and plan strategic communication strategies around the release of information.

CHINFO uses the quantitative data collected quarterly from representative online panels to evaluate public knowledge, favorability, capability perception, and engagement with the Navy. These insights allow CHINFO to adjust its public communication efforts, address areas of low awareness or misunderstanding, and brief senior leaders on national sentiment regarding defense capabilities, spending, and emerging threats.
