Abstract: Under the authority of sections 3004, 3005, 3008 and 3010 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) as amended, EPA revised the RCRA hazardous waste permitting program to allow a "standardized permit." The standardized permit is available to facilities that generate hazardous waste and routinely manage the waste on-site in non-thermal units such as tanks, containers, and containment buildings. In addition, the standardized permit is available to facilities that receive hazardous waste generated off-site by a generator under the same ownership as the receiving facility and then store or non-thermally treat the hazardous waste in containers, tanks, or containment buildings. The RCRA standardized permit consists of two components: a uniform portion that is included in all cases, and a supplemental portion that the director of a regulatory agency includes at his or her discretion. The uniform portion consists of terms and conditions relevant to the unit(s) at the permitted facility and is established on a national basis. The supplemental portion imposes site-specific permit terms and conditions that the director determines necessary to institute corrective action under § 264.101 (or state equivalent), or otherwise necessary to protect human health and the environment. Owners and operators have to comply with the terms and conditions in the supplemental portion, in addition to those in the uniform portion.

Form Numbers: None.

Respondents/affected entities: Entities potentially affected by this action are private businesses or other for-profit enterprises.

Respondent's obligation to respond: Required to obtain or retain benefits (40 CFR 270.275).

Estimated number of respondents: 1.

Frequency of response: once every 10 years.

Total estimated burden: 22 hours per year. Burden is defined at 5 CFR 1320.03(b).

Total estimated cost: $185 (per year), includes $53 annualized capital or operation & maintenance costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is a decrease of 196 hours in the total estimated respondent burden compared with the ICR currently approved by

OMB. This decrease is due to adjustments to the estimates.

Deputy Director, Data and Enterprise
Programs Division.
