

publication of the final phase notice of scheduling. Industrial users, and, if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping and countervailing duty investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigations. As provided in section 207.20 of the Commission's rules, the Director of the Office of Investigations will circulate draft questionnaires for the final phase of the investigations to parties to the investigations, placing copies on the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS, <https://edis.usitc.gov>), for comment.

Background

On July 15, 2026, Bristol Pipe and Tube, Inc., Bristol, Tennessee, Felker Brothers Corporation, Marshfield, Wisconsin, and Primus Pipe and Tube, Inc., Wildwood, Florida filed petitions with the Commission and Commerce, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury by reason of subsidized imports of welded stainless steel line and pressure pipe from India and Turkey and LTFV imports of welded stainless steel line and pressure pipe from India, Turkey, and the United Arab Emirates. Accordingly, effective July 15, 2026, the Commission instituted countervailing and antidumping duty investigation Nos. 701-TA-800-801 and 731-TA-1796-1798 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigations and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of July 20, 2026 (91 FR 45285). The Commission conducted its conference on August 5, 2026. All persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to participate.

The Commission made these determinations pursuant to §§ 703(a) and 733(a) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1671b(a) and 1673b(a)). It completed and filed its determinations in these investigations on August 31, 2026. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 5789 (August 2026), entitled Welded Stainless Steel Line and Pressure Pipe from India, Turkey, and the United Arab Emirates: Investigation Nos. 701-TA-800-801 and 731-TA-1796-1798 (Preliminary).

By order of the Commission.

[Investigation Nos. 701-TA-652 and 731-TA-1524-1526 (Review)]

Silicon Metal From Bosnia and Herzegovina, Iceland, Kazakhstan, and Malaysia; Determinations

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject five-year reviews, the United States International Trade Commission ("Commission") determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 ("the Act"), that revocation of the countervailing duty order on silicon metal from Kazakhstan and antidumping duty orders on silicon metal from Bosnia and Herzegovina, Iceland, and Malaysia would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.²

Background

The Commission instituted these reviews on March 2, 2026 (91 FR 10148) and determined on June 5, 2026, that it would conduct expedited reviews (91 FR 42251, July 8, 2026).³

The Commission made these determinations pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)). It completed and filed its determinations in these reviews on August 31, 2026. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 5785 (August 2026), entitled Silicon Metal from Bosnia and Herzegovina, Iceland, Kazakhstan, and Malaysia: Investigation Nos. 701-TA-652 and 1524-1526 (Review).

By order of the Commission.

² Chairman Brett W. Doyle and Commissioners Jason E. Kearns, Peter-Anthony Pappas, Bart Thanhauser, and David Foley Jr. voted in the affirmative.

Welded Line Pipe From South Korea and Turkey; Scheduling of Expedited Five-Year Reviews

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Commission hereby gives notice of the scheduling of expedited reviews pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 ("the Act") to determine whether revocation of the antidumping duty orders on welded line pipe from South Korea and Turkey and the countervailing duty order on welded line pipe from Turkey would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury within a reasonably foreseeable time.

The public record for this proceeding may be viewed on the Commission's electronic docket (EDIS) at <https://edis.usitc.gov>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background.—On August 4, 2026, the Commission determined that the domestic interested party group response to its notice of institution (91 FR 23459, May 1, 2026) of the subject five-year reviews was adequate and that the respondent interested party group response was inadequate. The Commission did not find any other circumstances that would warrant conducting full reviews.¹ Accordingly,

¹ A record of the Commissioners' votes, the Commission's statement on adequacy, and any

the Commission determined that it would conduct expedited reviews pursuant to section 751(c)(3) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)(3)).²

For further information concerning the conduct of these reviews and rules of general application, consult the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, part 201, subparts A and B (19 CFR part 201), and part 207, subparts A, D, E, and F (19 CFR part 207).

Staff report.—A staff report containing information concerning the subject matter of the reviews has been placed in the nonpublic record, and will be made available to persons on the Administrative Protective Order service list for these reviews on October 22, 2026. A public version will be issued thereafter, pursuant to § 207.62(d)(4) of the Commission's rules.

Written submissions.—As provided in § 207.62(d) of the Commission's rules, interested parties that are parties to the reviews and that have provided individually adequate responses to the notice of institution,³ and any party other than an interested party to the reviews may file written comments with the Secretary on what determination the Commission should reach in the reviews. Comments are due on or before 5:15 p.m. on October 29, 2026, and may not contain new factual information. Any person that is neither a party to the five-year reviews nor an interested party may submit a brief written statement (which shall not contain any new factual information) pertinent to the reviews by October 29, 2026. However, should the Department of Commerce ("Commerce") extend the time limit for its completion of the final results of its reviews, the deadline for comments (which may not contain new factual information) on Commerce's final results is three business days after the issuance of Commerce's results. If comments contain business proprietary information (BPI), they must conform with the requirements of §§ 201.6, 207.3, and 207.7 of the Commission's rules. The Commission's Handbook on Filing Procedures, available on the Commission's website at https://www.usitc.gov/documents/handbook_ individual Commissioner's statements will be available from the Office of the Secretary and at the Commission's website.

² Commissioner Amy A. Karpel did not participate.

³ The Commission has found the responses submitted on behalf of American Cast Iron Pipe Company, Axis Pipe and Tube, Borusan Pipe U.S., Inc., Dura-Bond Industries, Jindal Tubular USA, LLC, Welspun Tubular LLC, and Wheatland Tube Company to be individually adequate. Comments from other interested parties will not be accepted (see 19 CFR 207.62(d)(2)).

on filing procedures.pdf, elaborates upon the Commission's procedures with respect to filings.

In accordance with §§ 201.16(c) and 207.3 of the rules, each document filed by a party to the reviews must be served on all other parties to the reviews (as identified by either the public or BPI service list), and a certificate of service must be timely filed. The Secretary will not accept a document for filing without a certificate of service.

Determination.—The Commission has determined these reviews are extraordinarily complicated and therefore has determined to exercise its authority to extend the review period by up to 90 days pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1675(c)(5)(B).

Authority: These reviews are being conducted under authority of title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930; this notice is published pursuant to § 207.62 of the Commission's rules.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: August 31, 2026.
