

addition to a foldable projection edge in its extended position, it includes a permanently attached steel tub or barrow. This product is currently available under proprietary trade names such as the “Aerocart.”

Continuation of the Order

As a result of the determinations by Commerce and the ITC that revocation of the Order would likely lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and material injury to an industry in the United States, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act, Commerce hereby orders the continuation of the Order. U.S. Customs and Border Protection will continue to collect AD cash deposits at the rates in effect at the time of entry for all imports of subject merchandise.

The effective date of the continuation of the Order will be August 18, 2026.⁶ Pursuant to section 751(c)(2) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.218(c)(2), Commerce intends to initiate the next five-year reviews of the Order not later than 30 days prior to the fifth anniversary of the date of the last determination by the ITC.

Administrative Protective Order (APO)

This notice also serves as a final reminder to parties subject to an APO of their responsibility concerning the return or destruction of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305(a)(3), which continues to govern business proprietary information in this segment of the proceeding. Timely written notification of the return or destruction of APO materials, or conversion to judicial protective order, is hereby requested. Failure to comply with the regulations and terms of an APO is a violation which is subject to sanction.

Notification to Interested Parties

This five-year (sunset) review and this notice are in accordance with sections 751(c) and 751(d)(2) of the Act and published in accordance with section 777(i) of the Act, and 19 CFR 351.218(f)(4).

Dated: August 28, 2026.

Certain Steel Nails From the Republic of Korea, Malaysia, the Sultanate of Oman, Taiwan, and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam: Final Results of the Expedited Second Sunset Reviews of the Antidumping Duty Orders

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: As a result of these expedited sunset reviews, the U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) finds that revocation of the antidumping duty (AD) orders on certain steel nails (nails) from the Republic of Korea (Korea), Malaysia, the Sultanate of Oman (Oman), Taiwan, and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam (Vietnam) would be likely to lead to the continuation or recurrence of dumping, at the levels indicated in the “Final Results of Sunset Reviews” section of this notice.

DATES: Applicable September 3, 2026.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On May 1, 2026, Commerce published the notice of initiation of the second sunset reviews of the *Orders*¹ on nails from Korea, Malaysia, Oman, Taiwan, and Vietnam, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act).² On May 15, 2026, Commerce received notices of intent to participate from Mid Continent Steel & Wire, Inc. (Mid Continent) within the 15-day deadline specified in 19 CFR 351.218(d)(1)(i).³ Mid Continent claimed interested party status under section 771(9)(C) of the Act as a producer of nails in the United States. On June 1, 2026, Commerce received adequate substantive responses to the notice of initiation from Mid Continent within the 30-day deadline specified in 19 CFR 351.218(d)(3)(i).⁴ We received no substantive responses from respondent interested parties with respect to any of the orders covered by these sunset reviews. On May 22, 2026, Commerce notified the U.S. International Trade Commission that it received the Notice of Intent to Participate from domestic interested parties.⁵ As a result, pursuant to 751(c)(3)(B) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.218(e)(1)(ii)(C)(2), Commerce conducted expedited (120-day) sunset reviews of the Orders on nails from Korea, Malaysia, Oman, Taiwan, and Vietnam.

Scope of the Orders

The merchandise covered by the Orders is certain steel nails. For the full description of the scope of the Order, see the Issues and Decision Memorandum.⁶

Analysis of Comments Received

A complete discussion of all issues raised in these sunset reviews, including the likelihood of continuation or recurrence of dumping and the magnitude of the dumping margins likely to prevail if the Orders were revoked, is provided in the Issues and Decision Memorandum. A list of the topics discussed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum is attached as an appendix to this notice. The Issues and Decision Memorandum is a public document and is on file electronically via Enforcement and Compliance’s Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System (ACCESS). Final Results of Sunset Reviews

Pursuant to sections 751(c)(1) and 752(c)(1) and (3) of the Act, Commerce determines that revocation of the Orders on nails from Korea, Malaysia, Oman, Taiwan, and Vietnam would be likely to lead to the continuation or recurrence of dumping, and that the magnitude of the dumping margins likely to prevail is up to 11.80 percent for Korea, up to 39.35 percent for Malaysia, up to 9.10 percent for Oman, up to 2.24 percent for Taiwan, and up to 323.99 percent for Vietnam.

Notification Regarding Administrative Protective Orders

This notice also serves as the only reminder to parties subject to administrative protective order (APO) of their responsibility concerning the return or destruction of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305. Timely notification of the return or destruction of APO materials, or conversion to judicial protective orders, is hereby requested. Failure to comply with the regulations and terms of an APO is a violation which is subject to sanction.

Notification to Interested Parties

We are issuing and publishing these final results and this notice in accordance with sections 751(c), 752(c), and 777(i)(1) of the Act, and 19 CFR 351.218 and 19 CFR 351.221(c)(5)(ii).

Dated: August 31, 2026.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On March 10, 2026, Commerce published in the Federal Register the preliminary results of the 2023–2024 administrative review¹ of the antidumping duty order on heavy walled rectangular welded carbon steel pipes and tubes from Mexico,² covering two mandatory respondents, Forza and Prolamsa, and five non-examined companies. From April 13, 2026, to April 17, 2026, Commerce verified Prolamsa's questionnaire responses at Prolamsa's facility in Monterrey, Mexico, and from June 12, 2026, to June 14, 2026, Commerce verified the questionnaire responses of Prolamsa's U.S. affiliate, Prolamsa, Inc., in Houston, Texas.³ On May 14, 2026, we Commerce conducted this administrative review in accordance with section 751 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act).

Scope of the Order

The merchandise subject to the Order is heavy walled rectangular welded carbon steel pipes and tubes from Mexico. A full description of the scope of the Order is contained in the Issues and Decision Memorandum.

Analysis of Comments Received

All issues raised in the case and rebuttal briefs are addressed in the Issues and Decision Memorandum and are listed in Appendix I.

Changes Since the Preliminary Results

Based on a review of the record and comments received from interested parties regarding our Preliminary Results, and for the reasons explained in the Issues and Decision Memorandum, Commerce made certain revisions to the preliminary weighted-average dumping margin calculation programs for Forza and Prolamsa.⁶ As a result of the revisions, the weighted-average dumping margin changed for Prolamsa and the companies not selected for individual examination. Although revisions were made for Forza, the final weighted-average dumping margin did not change. For a discussion of these changes, see the Issues and Decision Memorandum.
