submit an application for a new STA, which may be valid for up to 5 years. TSA estimates an STA application burden of 9,052 hours per year (18,103 STA applications per year × 0.50 hours per application). Flight training providers must notify TSA of a candidate's proposed and actual training events, retain candidate training records and employee security awareness training records, and provide the names and contact information for security coordinators. TSA estimates providers will submit approximately 38,404 flight training notifications, per year, to TSA on behalf of candidates. TSA estimates a training event notification burden of 6,079 hours per year (38,404 flight training notifications × 0.1583 hours per notification). Flight training providers must also keep records for employee security awareness training. TSA estimates providers will maintain 23,699 records annually, resulting in an annual average recordkeeping burden of 396 hours (23,699 employee security awareness training records × 0.0167 hours per record). For new providers, and providers that name a new security coordinator, providers must submit such designation along with specific information to TSA. TSA estimates 3,125 new designations annually, resulting in an average annual designation burden of 782 per year (3,125 new security coordinator submissions × 0.25 hours per submission). Providers are also required to submit updated contact information for named security coordinators to TSA as such information changes. TSA estimates 2,209 reported contact information updates annually, resulting in an average information update burden of 199 hours per year (2,209 security coordinator contact information updates × 0.09 hours per update). TSA estimates the combined hour burden associated with this collection, for both flight training candidates and providers, to be 16,508 hours annually.

Applicants are also required to pay an application fee of $140.00 to cover the cost of their STA. TSA also designates a reduced fee of $125 for flight training candidates who hold a comparable STA issued by another Department of Homeland Security or TSA threat assessment program. TSA estimates the annual cost burden for fees to be $2,527,490 (17,641 standard applicants × $140 + 462 reduced applicants × $125).

DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

[Docket No. FR–6482–N–03]

Housing Trust Fund: Fiscal Year 2026 Allocation Notice

AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Community Planning and Development, HUD.

ACTION: Notice of Fiscal Year 2026 Funding Awards.

SUMMARY: The Housing and Economic Recovery Act of 2008 (HERA) established the Housing Trust Fund (HTF) to be administered by HUD. Pursuant to the Federal Housing Enterprises Financial Security and Soundness Act of 1992 (the Act), as amended by HERA, eligible HTF grantees are the 50 states, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, American Samoa, Guam, the Commonwealth of Northern Mariana Islands, and the United States Virgin Islands. This notice announces the formula allocation amount for each eligible HTF grantee.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Peter Huber, Supervisory Program Advisor, Office of Grant Programs, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 7th Street SW, Room 7164, Washington, DC, 20410; telephone (202) 285–5130. (This is not a toll-free number). HUD welcomes and is prepared to receive calls from individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing, as well as individuals with speech or communication disabilities. To learn more about how to make an accessible telephone call, please visit https://www.fcc.gov/consumers/guides/telecommunications-relay-service-trs.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 1131 of HERA, Division A amended the Act to add a new section 1337 entitled ''Affordable Housing Allocations'' and a new section 1338 entitled ''Housing Trust Fund.'' Congress authorized the Housing Trust Fund (HTF) with the stated purpose of: (1) Increasing and preserving the supply of rental housing for extremely low-income families with incomes between 0 and 30 percent of area median income and very low-income families with incomes between 30 and 50 percent of area median income, including homeless families, and (2) increasing homeownership for extremely low-income and very low-income families. Section 1337 of the Act (12 U.S.C. 4567) requires Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) and Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac) to set-aside 4.2 basis points (.042 percent) of the unpaid principal of their new mortgage purchases annually to fund the HTF and the Capital Magnet Fund. Each year, 65% of the amounts set aside by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac are then allocated to the HTF.

Section 1338 of the Act (12 U.S.C. 4568) directs HUD to establish, through regulation, the formula for the distribution of amounts made available for the HTF. The provisions in section 1338(c)(3) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 4568(c)(3)) specify the factors to be used for the formula and priority for certain factors. The HTF implementing regulations are at 24 CFR part 93. The factors and methodology HUD uses to allocate HTF funds among eligible grantees are established in the HTF regulation at 24 CFR 93.50, 93.51, and 93.52.

The funding announced for Fiscal Year 2026 through this notice is $255,516,650.92. Appendix A to this notice provides the HTF allocation amount for each grantee.

Ronald J. Kurtz,

Assistant Secretary for Community Planning and Development.
